Nominations will be made on December 4 and polling will take place on December 14.

Prorogation of Parliament will take place on Wednesday or Thursday of next week at the latest.

DEMOBILIZATION STEPS DISCUSSED

Conference of Committees and Departmental Officials Held —Requests on Behalf of Individuals Are in Vain.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Demobilization was under consideration today at a conference between the reconstruction and development committees of the cabinet and representatives of the Militia Department, the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and other government departments affected. The idea of the conference was to draft a general policy of demobilization.

After nine stenographers, especially detailed for the work, had endeavored unsuccessfully to cope with the flood of letters received requesting the immediate return of soldiers from the front, the Militia Department issued the following statement:

"In view of the very large number of letters received at Militia Headquarters during the last few days requesting that, in view of the armistice, sons, brothers and other relatives may be immediately discharged from the army and returned to Canada, the Department of Militia and Defence finds it necessary to state:

"First: That owing to the large number of these communications and the tremendous labor involved in dealing with them, replies will not be sent to any received during the last few days unless the cases appear to come within the policy affecting leave of absence on compassionate grounds, in which event they will be dealt with in the usual way.

"Second: That it is impossible to accede to, or even consider such applications unless they are based upon circumstances involving hardship which bring them clearly within the policy governing compassionate leave. Any other course of action would involve the return to Canada of soldiers by preference, or selection, for private reasons, which could not in any way be justified."

POLES ARE OUSTING GERMANY'S AGENTS

BERNE, Nov. 14.—Vienna advices say that Polish soldiers have occupied the royal palaces and the Belvidere at Warsaw, and also the military commander's headquarters. They also have taken possession of the German military automobiles and arms and munitions.

Polish officers are directing the German demobilization. Poles hold the post and telephone stations connecting with Vienna. The German police have been disarmed.

Count Lerchenfeld-Mosfering, the German civilian administrator, has fled to Brig.-Gen. Joseph Pielsudski, of the Polish Legion, for protection.

Dutch Socialist Programme

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 14.—Pieter J. Troelstra, the Dutch Socialist leader, declared at Rotterdam yesterday that a meeting of the Socialists November 16 would decide whether a soldiers' and workmen's council would be established in Holland, according to advices received here. He is said to have denounced Bolshevikism and to have said that Dutch Socialists would act calmly, but drastically

ROUMANIA WANTS TRANSYLVANIA

BASEL, Nov. 14.—Advices received here from Hungary say that Count Karolyi, president of the Hungarian National Council, has made the assertion that Roumania declared war on Germany in order to force the German field marshal, Von Mackensen, to disarm his men. It is stated that Von Mackensen contends that the German Republic is not a legitimate Government.

ZURICH, Nov. 14.—Roumania's ultimatum to Count Karolyi's Government to evacuate Transylvania was preceded by a general mobilization of the Roumanian army and the arrival of an Allied army from the Balkans in Roumania. The entry of the Roumanian army into Transylvania was announced from Vienna yesterday.

Estate of T. J. Roberts

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—Probate for the estate of the late Thomas J. Roberts was asked for before Mr. Justice Morrison this morning, the estate being valued at $98.02½, with liabilities of $32,295. The grand hotel property was valued at $30,000, the total real estate being value at $68,000, all of it free from encumbrance. The deceased died intestate. Mrs. Roberts is asking to be appointed administratrix.

CONFERS D. S. MEDAL ON MARSHAL FOCH

SENLIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—General John J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, today conferred upon Marshal Foch, the commander-in-chief of the Allied armies, the American Distinguished Service Medal.

The presentation was made in the name of President Wilson at the villa where Marshal Foch has his headquarters, and was an impressive ceremony.

A guard of honor was drawn up at headquarters and trumpeters blew a fanfare as Marshal Foch, with General Pershing on his right, took position a few paces in front of the guard.

Acting Minister of Justice

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—In the absence of Hon. C. J. Doherty overseas, Sir Arthur Meighen will be acting Minister of Justice.

ASKS COUNSEL REGARDING WAGES

Premier Lloyd George Invites Assistance and Advice From Employers' Association and Trade Union Organizations.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Premier Lloyd George, in an address yesterday before the representatives from the employers' associations and trade unions of the principal industries of the country, wished to have the assistance and advice of the employers' associations and trade unions as to the course which should be adopted to make provision for the carrying out of the pledges given by the Government in March, 1915. At that time the unions were requested to relax during the period of the war certain union practices and customs.

Provision must be made, he said for conditions which are now arising in connection with wages, owing to the fact that with the change over from munitions work to private work, the rate of wages which had been fixed by awards and orders under the Munitions of War Act would cease to have effect.

The Government, he declared, intended that the pledges given would be carried out. It was the policy of the Government, with the help of the association of employers and the work people's associations, to provide that during the immediate transition period, the present level of wages, due to the high cost of living, should be maintained for at least a period of six months, unless altered by amendment between the various parties concerned.

Later a consulative committee was appointed by the employers' and work people's representatives in accordance with the suggestion made by the Government that there should be joint discussion of the subject, and that it should be dealt with immediately.

GREAT ATTACK WAS PREPARED

Marshal Foch Had Planned to Strike Decisive Blow at Germany East of Meuse When Armistice Came.

ENEMY THEN FACING DISASTER

Allies May Still Need Heavy Forces to Cope With Bodies of German Troops Refusing to Obey.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Describing the situation at the front, the military correspondent of the British Wireless Service says:

"Marshal Foch had prepared a further great attack east of the Meuse, which would undoubtedly have dealt the enemy a decisive blow. When the armistice was concluded, therefore, the Germans were faced with imminent disaster, and the only course open to them was to surrender at discretion.

"The German army appears to be in a state of extreme confusion, but the five days' respite which has been granted may enable the Germans to organize their lines of communication and carry out the withdrawal of their troops. It is evident that the Allies must remain prepared for possible hostile action on the part of certain elements of the enemy's forces. Revolutionary councils have been set up which may refuse to acquiesce in the terms of the armistice, and the mere fact that the armistice may be terminated by either side at 48 hours' notice necessitates the Allies being fully prepared for eventualities.

"Whatever happens, no organized or effective resistance can under any circumstances be offered by the German army, but if the troops refuse to acknowledge the authority of their present commanders and the army should distintegrate, the Allied armies may still have much work to do."

VICTOR EMMANUEL ACCLAIMED IN ROME

ROME, Nov. 14.—All Rome turned out today to welcome Victor Emmanuel, the soldier-king, who had been at the Italian battlefront since the beginning of hostilities. From the railway station to the Quirinal there was one black mass of cheering people.

The King drove to the palace in an open carriage. After his arrival there he was forced to appear at the windows several times with the Queen in response to the continuous storm of applause from the crowds.

VON HINDENBURG ISSUES ORDERS

Field-Marshal Still Supreme Commander of German Army—Directs Orderly Return of Troops to Homes.

BERLIN, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg has issued a proclamation to the German army, saying in substance:

"The ever-growing number of our enemies, the exhaustion of our allies and the urgent crisis in the provisioning of our country have forced us to accept the hard conditions of the armistice. By the terms of the armistice we are obliged to rapidly return to the fatherland, which is a heavy task.

"You will never be abandoned by your Field Marshal in the struggle. He will ever be confident in you."

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg remains as head of the supreme German army command, according to a German wireless message received here, which gives the text of a message he has sent to army commanders ordering them to lead their troops home in order and discipline.

The order of the Field Marshal reads:

"To all, and especially the army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen (in Roumania):

"I remain, as hitherto, the head of the supreme army command. In order to lead the troops home in order and discipline, I expect the command, staff officers, non-commissioned officers and men to continue to do their duty. This is to be made known to all the troops."

Feared to Extend Hospitality

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14.—Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, according to The Frankfort Gazette, wished to extend hospitality to the former German Emperor while he remained in Holland. However, the newspaper adds, as Holland itself fears the coming days, it was found desirable that William Hohenzollern should live as a private individual.

THANKSGIVING DAY POSTPONED

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Advices from the Provincial Governments of the four Western Provinces show that influenza conditions are such that the churches will not be open next Sunday, and it is urgent that national Thanksgiving be postponed.

The Government therefore has fixed the date for Sunday, December 1.

NORWAY SUFFERS BY U-BOAT WARFARE

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Norway lost during the war 831 vessels, aggregating close on to one and a quarter millions tons, according to official statistics. In addition, 33 vessels of approximately 69,000 tons were damaged by German submarines.

One thousand one hundred and twenty lives were lost in these disasters.

TO ENTER METZ AND STRASSBURG

Marshal Foch on Sunday Will Represent France in Again Taking Possession of Her Lost Provinces.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Germany's troops began to evacuate France and Belgium on Tuesday. The Allied troops then moved forward, the Americans advancing in the direction of Metz and Strassburg.

Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allied Army, will make solemn entry into these German fortresses on Sunday in the presence of President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau. The Marshal will ride into the cities on "Croesus," his favorite charger.

It is probable that the departments in the re-won territory will resume their old names, namely, Bas Rhin, prefecture of Strassburg; Haut Rhin, prefecture of Colmar, and Moselle, prefecture of Metz. The Government already is considering the establishment of administrative offices.

NEW GOVERNMENT SET UP AT BERLIN GIVES PROGRAMME

Radical Modifications of Existing Laws Promised, Including Freedom of Assembly, Speech and Writing — Censorship and State of Siege Abolished—Direct Suffrage.

ALL MEMBERS OF CABINET NAMED BELONG TO TWO SOCIALIST PARTIES

BERNE, Nov. 14.—A dispatch received here from Berlin says: "The Government has published its programme in a proclamation. The dispatch adds that the programme enforces many modifications toward democracy and liberty, economical and political."

The proclamation concludes that the victims of the fighting during the last few days inside Greater Berlin shall be buried together in the cemetery, where the victims of the 1848 revolution are buried.

The proclamation announces that the state of siege has been raised; that there is to be full liberty for all, even functionaries of associations; the censorship, including that on the telegraphs, is abolished; there is to be freedom of speech and of writing; amnesty for political offenders; annulment of the law of national auxiliary service; an eight-hour working day and universal direct secret suffrage, with proportionate representation for both sexes above twenty years of age for election to all public bodies.

Carry Out Armistice

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14.—The Berlin Government has issued orders in which it says it will support the officers in maintaining discipline in the navy. The order calls for all ranks to co-operate in carrying out the terms of the armistice.

Another Abdication

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Prince Friedrich of Waldeck-Pyrmont has voluntarily relinquished his Government, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Copenhagen.

Waldeck-Pyrmont is one of the smaller states of the German Empire. It consists of the former principality of Waldeck, enclosed by the Prussian provinces of Westphalia and Hesse-Nassau, and the little principality of Pyrmont, surrounded by the Prussian provinces of Hanover, Lippe and Brunswick.

Altogether it has an area of 433 square miles, located in the basin of the Weser River. Its population is less than 100,000, nearly all of whom are Protestant. Prince Friedrich succeeded to the throne in 1914, after the death of his half brother, Prince Wolrad, who was killed in battle. Wolrad was a half-brother of Dowager Queen Emma of the Netherlands.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14. — The new German Government has been organized with the following cabinet members: Premier and Minister of the Interior and Military Affairs, Friedrich Ebert; Foreign Affairs, Hugo Hasse; Finance and Colonies, Philipp Scheidemann; Demobilization, Transport, Justice and Health, Wilhelm Dittmann; Publicity, Art and Literature, Herr Landeberg, and Social Policy, Richard Barth.

Announcement of the members of the new German Government confirms previous reports that the cabinet would be composed entirely of Socialists. The majority Socialists, who supported the Imperial Government during the war are represented by Ebert, Schiedemann and Landsberg, while the Independent Socialists are Hasse, Dittmann and Barth.

Dittmann, who sits in the Reichstag as a deputy from Hamburg, was sentenced to imprisonment last February in connection with labor troubles in Berlin. He was released by the Imperial Government a few days before its downfall. Richard Barth formerly was editor of The Socialist Vorwaerts and is a member of the Spartacus or Bolsheviki element of the Independent Socialists. It was reported through Copenhagen under date of Monday that he had resigned from the Government after a stormy meeting of the cabinet.

Wurtemburg and Baden

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14.—The Berlingske Tidende learns that the Wurttemberg cabinet has been supplemented by members of the Peoples' National, the Liberal and Centrist parties.

A Karlsruhe despatch declares that the Grand Duke of Baden has postponed his abdication on Berlin having resumed a quieter aspect.

Advices from Berlin say that the red guard in Brunswick is arresting high officials and high representatives of the military authorities and throwing them into prison.

Another dispatch says the negotiations between the soldiers' council and the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar were prolonged and dramatic. The Grand Duke persistently refused to abdicate but finally he yielded. On account of the unpopularity of the Grand Duke the council advised him to go to some small town.

VERSAILLES MAY HAVE CONGRESS

Associated Governments Reported to Favor Historic Suburb of Paris as Scene of Peace Negotiations.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—General feeling of the associated governments is that Versailles is the most convenient place to hold the peace conference, and if this were decided on, it would also serve as recognition of the paramount position of France in the war.

It is probable that the first meeting of the peace congress will be on a date after the British parliamentary elections and at a time which will give ample opportunity for the American and other delegates to arrive. A meeting to be held shortly of the inter-Allied conference will finally determine the details of these questions.

Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Minister Balfour, of Great Britain; Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino, of Italy; Premier Venizelos, of Greece, and Foreign Minister Pachitch, of Serbia, are on their way here for a resumption of the conference at the home of Colonel Edward M. House, special representative of the United States Government, and the sessions at Versailles.

Besides outlining the general programme of the congress, the question of meeting the food situation in Germany and Austria has to be considered.

LOAN'S SUCCESS IS NOW ASSURED

Dominion Total Has Reached Over $425,000,000, With Some Reports to Come—Vancouver's Strong Effort in Closing Days—Cities in Ontario Subscribe Heavily.

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Three of the larger cities of Ontario "went over the top" in the Victory Loan campaign today—Toronto, Hamilton and London. The provincial capital came up with a rush, subscribing $18,118,150 and putting its total at $90,071,450. The figures to date for the whole province, with the exception of one canvassing division which had not been able to turn in a report up to midnight, stand at $222,796,150, of which $23,901,500 was subscribed today.

As to the Dominion as a whole, while the returns are by no means complete, $425,443,600 actually has been reported to the Dominion business committee. This means that the success of the loan is now beyond a doubt.

At this stage of last year's campaign Canada had subscribed $296,249,250; Ontario, $149,702,000, and Toronto, $66,623,000.

The totals for the other provinces, those for Quebec including $80,455,850 from Montreal, are:

British Columbia	$ 32,255,250
Alberta	11,724,650
Saskatchewan	10,761,450
Manitoba	27,795,900
Quebec	100,003,550
New Brunswick	11,328,600
Nova Scotia	19,229,450
Prince Edward Island	1,552,200

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—Victory Loan canvassers today turned in a card of $696,250 at city headquarters, bringing the total subscribed in Vancouver to $11,188,250. Total official provincial figures up to the night of November 13 amounted to $22,255,350. Among interesting contributions today was one from Boso Bazin, Austrian, confined behind the wire of the Vernon internment camp. He contributed $150, from wages received since internment. In a covering letter in broken English he subscribes the above amount as a slight atonement for the havoc wrought by the brutality of his country in declaring war on little Serbia.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—Winnipeg city's Victory Loan Honor Flag was run to the top of the flagstaff at the City Hall at midday today. No public presentation celebrations were allowed on the occasion, since the city health authorities banned the assembly that had been planned.

EDMONTON, Nov. 14.—Edmonton went over the top yesterday in its Victory Loan campaign. The city's quota was $1,750,000. Yesterday's subscription of $130,050 made a total of $1,898,850. This is notwithstanding the act that the city is one of the hardest hit in Canada by the influenza epidemic

With the $5,000,000 objective well within its grasp, and the daily totals of subscriptions steadily mounting higher as the end of the campaign approaches, Victoria's Victory Loan forces stand ready today for a smashing finish to what has probably been the greatest single task ever assigned to this city.

Victoria is not going to be content with half measures. She is going to the limit. She is going to see to it that the men who have brought glory to her name in foreign battlefields do not suffer by shortcomings at home. Victoria has poured out without stint her man power and money for war. She is going to do the same thing cheerfully for peace.

That is the conclusion reached by officials of the Victory Loan organization here after studying the daily returns and surveying the possibilities that today and tomorrow are likely to be transformed into certainties.

Gave $400,000 in Day

Four hundred thousand dollars—the biggest sum raised in a single day since the campaign began nearly three weeks ago—rolled into the Victory Loan coffers yesterday. The official total for Wednesday was $575,000, but that included a lump sum of $300,000 from the Corporation of the City of Victoria. Yesterday's figures include $51,400 from Saanich.

"We are determined to make a strenuous effort to clean the city up during the last two days, and already the indications point to our getting $5,000,000 without the contribution of the Provincial Government's half million," said one of the Victory Loan chiefs last night.

British Treasury's Disbursements for 202 Days Are £1,351,000,000—Loans to Allies and Dominions Large.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—In moving a vote of credit for £700,000,000 in the House of Commons Mr. Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said that everything available in connection with the manufacture of instrumentalities of war would be turned to the production of merchant ships, so that there probably would be an increased expenditure under this head.

The estimated expenditure for the 302 days to October 19 was £1,411,000,000, but the actual disbursements amounted to £1,351,000,000. There was a reduction in loans to the Allies and Dominions of £276,000, as compared with the estimate. The daily expenditure for the army increased £39,500,000, while the disbursements for the navy decreased £13,500,000, because of the fact that expectations as to the building of merchant ships had not been realised. There was a reduction of £30,000,000 on munitions as compared with the estimate, owing to the over-ambitious programme.

Mr. Law stated that total loans to Britain's Allies amounted to £1,465,000,000 sterling, and to the Dominions, £218,000,000. Altogether £568,000,000 had been lent to Russia, £425,000,000 to France, £345,000,000 to Italy and £127,000,000 to the smaller states. Britain's debts abroad were not expected to exceed £1,000,000,000. This, said Mr. Law, Britain can easily bear. Its future, however, depended upon the extent to which labor and capital could work together harmoniously.

The Chancellor praised the part taken in the war by the Dominions and India. He promised definitely that the Dominions would share in the peace negotiations.

Mr. Bonar Law said that with the exception of one clause, where President Wilson was not absolutely distinct, everything which the Allies ever asked for could be covered by the fourteen points enunciated by the President.

ARRANGING SUPPLY OF FOOD FOR EUROPE

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Sir Albert H. Stanley, President of the Board of Trade, announced today that the first steps had been taken to relax prohibition on imports and exports.

The Daily Express is officially informed that the arrangements being made to supply the German people's most pressing need for food will not entail shortages for the Allied nations. The inter-Allied food council will decide what supplies should be allotted, first taking into consideration the requirements of the Allies and neutral peoples.

Great Britain will be able to supply large quantities of herrings and other pickled fish without deprivation to herself.

The Allied wheat reserves will not be lessened by Germany's need for bread, but there is no immediate prospect of white loaves in this country.

BRITISH CASUALTIES IN LAST WEEK OF WAR

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Casualties in the British ranks reported in the week ending today total 20,535 officers and men, divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds—Officers, 387; men, 6,237.

Wounded or missing—Officers, 1,049; men, 22,862.

Totals—Officers, 1,436; men, 29,099.

SUMS UP WORK ON BALKAN FRONT

French Official Report Shows Results of Operations which Liberated Great Area From Teutonic Domination.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—An official communication relating to recent operations in the Eastern theatre says:

"On November 9 and 10 the Serbian troops which crossed the Danube north of Semendria drove back the German forces and reached the region of Weisskirchen.

"Farther east the advanced guard of the Franco-British army on the Danube, after a battle with German troops forced a passage of the river at Roustchouk, Sistova and Turnu-Magurele, and penetrated Wallachia.

"At the same time the Roumanian army mobilised, hostilities ceased on the Eastern front at 11 o'clock, November 11.

"The general offensive began in Macedonia on September 10, and in the course of fifty-seven days of severe fighting the Allied armies in the east extended their operations progressively along a front of 1,500 kilometres from the Aegean to the Black Sea, the Danube and the Adriatic. Despite fatigues and privations of all kinds, due to the nature of the ground and the lack of communication, they successfully crushed Bulgaria, delivered Eastern Macedonia, Serbia and Montenegro, isolated Turkey and participated in the defeat of Austria and Germany, finally stretching forth a hand to liberated Roumania."

The liberation of Belgium promises to be rapidly accomplished.

On the occasion of the re-entry of the Belgian sovereigns into Brussels the French Government has decided to present to the Queen the Grand Cordon of the Legion of Honor and to the Heir Apparent the Chevalier's Cross and the Cross of War.

In conformity with the agreement reached between Marshal Foch and the German delegates, a period of five days has been allowed the enemy in which to hand over all the armament and material stipulated in the armistice.

The French command asked the Germans for information as to where mines had been laid, and was informed that some had been placed in the Ostend station and timed to explode yesterday. The German command accordingly was asked to send officers to locate the explosives. The Germans today are sending an officer to Chimay to arrange with the French officers for the handing over of the arms and material which Germany has to surrender.

WHEAT SUBSTITUTES NOT NOW REQUIRED

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Following the action of the Allied food controllers, all orders and rulings on requiring the sale, purchase, use or consumption of substitutes for wheat flour are repealed from Thursday, whether in the trade or in private homes.

Wheat substitutes only are affected by the new orders. The present milling extraction of standard flour will be retained, and this, it is felt, will enable sufficient flour to be exported for the needs of the Allies.

GENERAL PETAIN SPEAKS TO ARMY

French Commander Admonishes His Troops to Refrain From Disorder In Germany —Tribute to Dead.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—General Petain, the French commander-in-chief, has issued the following order of the day to his troops:

"The French Armies:

"During the long months you have fought history will record the tenacity and fierce energy displayed during these four years by our country, which had to vanquish in order not to die.

"Tomorrow, in order to better dictate peace, you are going to carry your arms as far as the Rhine. Into that land of Alsace-Lorraine that is so dear to us you will march as liberators. You will go further, all the way into Germany, to occupy lands which are the necessary guarantees for just reparation.

"France has suffered in her ravaged fields and in her ruined villages. The freed provinces have had to submit to intolerable vexations and odious outrages, but you are not to answer these crimes by the commission of violence, which, under the spur of your resentment may seem to you legitimate.

"You are to remain under discipline and show respect to persons and property. You will know after having vanquished your adversary by force of arms, how to impress him further by the dignity of your attitude, and the world will not know which to admire most, your conduct in success or your heroism in fighting.

"I address a fond and affectionate greeting to our dead, whose sacrifices gave the victory. And I send a message of salutation, full of sad affection, to the fathers, to the mothers, to the widows and orphans of France, who in these days of national joy, dry their tears for a moment to acclaim the triumph of our arms. I bow my head before your magnificent flags.

"Vive la France.

sers is driving them forward with renewed enthusiasm. The second day of the race finds the teams standing as follows, only the names of the captains and the number of applications secured being given:

McKeachie Being Crowded

McKeachie, 82; Marriner, 79; Moss, 73; Mowat, 59; Bishop, 58; Lewin, 55; Briggs, 50; Peden, 47; Hudson, 39; Shanks and Wilson, 36 (bracketed); Murphy, 29; Brown, 18.

Mr. J. E. Andrews and Sergt.-Major Lawrence returned from Willows Camp, having signed up nearly 100 officers and men for the Loan. Nineteen members of the officers' mess bought bonds, several having already invested. Honor flags were awarded to the cookhouse and Y.M.C.A. staff.

An American who resided in Victoria for four years and who has lately been living in Port Angeles wrote to a local firm of solicitors stating that owing to the magnificent part Canada has played in this war he is going to invest in Canada's Victory Loan.

Hindus Buy "Big"

Mr. C. B. Bishop signed up two Hindus for $600 apiece yesterday. Last week he visited their farms in the Cadboro Bay district and explained the meaning of the bond to them. They made small purchases then and promised more this week. Mr. Bishop had almost forgotten them when he got a message from them yesterday. He drove out to their houses with the intention of signing them up on the spot, but they expressed the wish that they should sign their cheques at his own home, so they were brought into the city and enlisted in the army of bondholders, enjoying a four-mile return motor trip as an incidental.

Someone phoned headquarters yesterday and stated that a lady who happened to be down with the Spanish influenza wanted to buy some bonds, but couldn't come to town. Was there any canvasser that wasn't afraid of the flu? In a few minutes Messrs. Kenneth Ferguson and Fred M. McGregor were on the spot and not only signed up the invalid, but the nurse as well.

Saves for Home-Coming

A young woman whose husband is in France told a salesman that she was trying to save up so that when her soldier returned they might have a little celebrating on their own account, buy some new furniture and fix up the house. She wanted a bond, but she thought it was her duty to save. The salesman pointed out that she could save and draw interest on her savings by investing in bonds, so she took his advice and put all her money into the Victory Loan.

Kelly, Douglas & Co. have subscribed $200,000 to the Victory Loan, including the purchases of B. C. branches and employees, according to Mr. H. L. Whittaker, local manager. In Victoria the company has allocated the purchase of $15,000 of bonds, and the employees have boosted this total of $16,200. The company is now the possessor of a 100 per cent honor card.

AUSTRIANS DIE OF STARVATION

Released Prisoners Bring Word That Great Numbers Are Likely to Perish This Winter —Conditions Horrible.

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—G. D. McLeod, of Montreal, an aviator, and C. O. Young, of Des Moines, Ia., imprisoned by the Austrians during the Italian campaign, have reached the Italian lines. They bring direct news of conditions in the interior of Austria, having traveled from Salzerbad, near Vienna, after being liberated.

"Horrible food conditions prevail in Austria," said McLeod today, "and it is quite possible that a million people will die there this Winter from lack of food, weakness and disease. The country is quiet now, but another Russia may grow out of the situation as soon as the troops returning from the front discover that the end of the war has not brought relief.

"Zones along the railways are like those on the battlefields. We saw bodies scattered here and there as a result of men crowding on the tops of trains and being swept off by tunnels.

"There were also bodies of wounded men who have been taken from Red Cross cars and left to die. Terrible sanitary conditions prevail in little towns filled with returning soldiers.

"What Austria needs is food. The other prisoners and I are alive only because food is received from outside of Austria. For three days a friend and I had between us only a little bad bread. It was about as big as a man's hand. Five hundred newly-arrived Serbian troops are keeping order at Laibach."

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—G. D. McLeod is a son of the late Professor McLeod, of McGill University. He was shot down on the Italian front on June 8.

CABINET TO DEAL WITH PUBLIC WORKS

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—With the return of Hon. Frank Carvell to Ottawa the policy to be determined upon with regard to expenditure on public works will be taken up by the Government. Mr. Carvell holds the view that while there should be no hesitation in proceeding with essential work, post-war conditions will require an equal need for economy.

"I am as strongly opposed as ever," he said today, "to the spending of public money where it is not needed."

Work on the Welland Canal will be continued as soon as conditions permit. The Government's part in the Toronto Harbor improvement scheme and the development of the St. Charles at Quebec will be considered shortly. It is probable that the Government will decide to continue work on one section of the Toronto scheme.

Other proposals in view are: Dredging at Fort William and in the Fraser River; deepening the St. Lawrence Channel; continuation of harbor work at St. John and on the Halifax terminals.

PROFESSOR EDWARDS DIES OF INFLUENZA

EDMONTON, Nov. 14.—W. Muir Edwards, professor of civil and municipal engineering in the University of Alberta, died in the Pembina temporary isolation hospital at 7:30 this morning from influenza. Professor Edwards, who had been taking a prominent part in the relief work, contracted the disease some days ago and never recovered. He was a graduate of McGill University and was lecturer in the faculty of applied science before coming to Edmonton to take a chair in the newly-organized University of Alberta.

"Endless Chain" Swindle

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Ramification of an alleged "endless chain" sales swindle through which it is charged 9,000 agents scattered throughout the United States were victimized to the extent of more than $1,000,000, was revealed here today with the arraignment of Mrs. Ethel J. PAPER MAKERS GET BIG PROFITS

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—The newsprint tribunal was formally constituted here yesterday and the decks were cleared for hearing of the appeals of both the manufacturers and newspaper publishers against the price of $69 a ton for newsprint fixed by the paper controller. Justices Archer, of the superior court of Quebec; Middleton, of the Ontario supreme court, and White, of the New Brunswick supreme court, met in the board room of the Railway Commission at noon.

Startling figures as to the profits made by Canadian paper mills were submitted to the paper control tribunal by W. N. Tilley, K.C., acting for Canadian publishers, today. He showed that the Laurentide Company had net earnings, after deductions for depreciation and betterments, of $2,321,951 for the year ended last June, as compared with $867,592 in 1914.

Price Brothers' 1918 figure was $1,374,782, as compared with $451,287 in 1914. Spanish River Mills' net revenue was $1,729,231 in 1918, as compared with $879,255, in 1914.

"But they manufactured other things than newsprint," said a member of the tribunal when these figures were read.

"Yes," said Mr. Tilley, "and that is why we came to ask the Government auditor, G. T. Clarkson, to see if newsprint is really a by-product or side line, which is one thing this board will have to consider. The profits made before the war were normal profits plus what could be obtained by a well-regulated combine."

"Did not the commissioner go into that?" the tribunal asked.

"We wanted to go into that, but we were stopped," said Mr. Tilley, who took up much of today's session in a recital of the publishers' many vain efforts to get a proper investigation of the paper mills' affairs, and who urged that Mr. Clarkson be allowed to tell the tribunal his experiences as investigator.

No decision as to calling Mr. Clarkson was reached, but the tribunal did order that newspapers must pay the Pringle price of $69 per ton for newsprint solely on the ground that it has no jurisdiction to stay his order. The Government may give them jurisdiction, however.

RECONSTRUCTION CALLS FOR MONEY

Chairman of Victory Loan Executive Ocers Cogent Reasons for Public Subscribing to Extent of Ability.

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—"While we can never be absolutely certain until returns are actually recorded, I am confident we are within sight of our $500,000,000 objective," said Mr. E. R. Wood, chairman of the Dominion executive, Victory Loan, when interviewed last evening. "On Monday we felt some apprehension lest the spirit of relaxation might extend for some time and interfere with the success we have been working for.

"Our apprehension has proved to be absolutely groundless. The many workers and subscribers alike returned to their tasks on Tuesday morning and have kept at it since. The result has been simply magnificent. It forecasts a success unparalleled in Canada's financial history. Evidently the public appreciate at its true value the new situation created by the cessation of hostilities. That situation is a serious one—not one to cause alarm, but serious. Our boys at the front have finished their task as far as actual fighting is concerned. But our war task at home will not be completed until we have restored the country to normal conditions. That is the task to which we must bend our efforts now. When one considers the sacrifices our people have made in the last four years of war one cannot but be certain that they are capable of making whatever sacrifices or self-denial may be necessary.

"The problem of the transition or reconstruction period is entirely one of finance. By comparison therefore the success of the Victory Loan is even more important than it was in war days. The fighting job is gloriously finished, the financial job is as great as ever. We can make of the transition period on which we are now entering what we will. If we let things slide it will be dangerous. If we grasp the situation firmly we can transfer it into one of magnificent opportunity. There are tremendous possibilities for Canadian industry and production if we finance them. Domestic developments more extensive than anything hitherto contemplated are possible if we finance them. A Canadian commission is headed for Europe for the purpose of securing orders for the Canadian industries for the reconstruction of Europe. Canada has earned a large share of that business. She has earned it by the valor and the loyalty of her people. She will get it—if she finances it.

"Someone might unthinkingly suggest that the Victory Loan is no longer needed to back up the men at the front. That would be a short-sighted suggestion. In a real sense the loan is needed to back them up more than ever. Because now we are going to bring them home. And what are we going to bring them home to? Are we going to bring them home to shift for themselves, or are we going to bring them home to a prosperous country, humming with enterprise and industries—a country with work and opportunity for everybody?

"They have been fighting to protect us. Now we have an opportunity to reward them not merely by bringing them home but by bringing them home to a land of prosperity and opportunity. Canada has found herself in this war. She has discovered not merely the gallantry of her soldiers, but the brains and capacity and efficiency of her whole people. In every branch, in arms, in industry, in finance, she has had to measure her wits against the world, and in no case has Canada reason to be other than gratified.

"My message is therefore to everybody to keep on buying every bond you can until the loan is closed."

A BRITISH ELECTION

A general election is to be held in the United Kingdom on December 14, and, so far as can be gathered, the main issue will be the character of the Government into whose hands the people are prepared to commit the programme of reconstruction following the war. Mr. Lloyd George, as Premier, will lead a national party largely composed of those who followed his leadership since he took over the reins of Government in December, 1916, for it has been decided the present Prime Minister will appeal to all political classes of the people irrespective of what their pre-war politics may have been. Mr. Honar Law and the Conservatives will give him their support. He can count on the adhesion of upwards of a hundred members of the Liberals in the House of Commons, and on present reckoning has a majority in the House of anywhere from 125 to 200, while in many of his war policies the only dissenting voices were those of the small group of pacifists, who under any circumstances never numbered more than 30.

When Parliament met after the last general election the standing of parties in the House of Commons was as follows:

Liberals	272
Conservatives	272
Nationalists	84
Laborites	42
Total	670

Of by-elections, before the Asquith Government became a national ministry, the Conservatives had won a number, but not enough to endanger the Government, which, on the majority of questions, was assured of the support of both Nationalists and Laborites. The formation of a National Government by Mr. Lloyd George altered the political outlook in the House. The Nationalists remained unaffected, and from 100 to 125 Liberals elected to follow the leadership of Mr. Asquith and be regarded as in opposition, but in almost every case they were found supporting Government war policies. For some time past there has been a growing feeling in the United Kingdom that the House of Commons has lost touch with opinion in the country, something that is quite conceivable considering that the present Parliament was elected eight years ago. This complaint was loudly voiced during recent months, and it has been certain that, no matter what stage the war had reached, Mr. Lloyd George had determined to test public opinion just so soon as the new voters' lists were compiled.

Owing to the giving of the franchise to women over the age of 31 there will be millions of new voters taking part in the general election of next month. Provision will be made for taking the soldiers' vote. A certain curiosity will exist about the name to be given to Mr. Lloyd George's followers. They cannot be called Nationalists, for that title is already pre-empted by the Irish members, and it is doubtful if the term Unionist would appeal to the Liberal supporters of the Premier. Strictly speaking, the Lloyd George party will not be a coalition one, for while it was brought into existence out of other parties during the life of the present Parliament, it will go to the country as a compact force and should have a definite name. It will have in its ranks Liberals, Laborites and Conservatives, and the party, which has already outlined, and to a great extent arranged to put into practice, a comprehensive programme of reconstruction, may be the beginning of a true national party, which will go a long way towards stilling the political strife of the past.

One of the most interesting aspects of the coming election will be the part Labor is to play in the reshaping of Britain. The Labor Party, for the first time in its history, purposes making a definite bid for power. It has plans afoot to place 400 candidates in the field. Should it be successful in electing even half that number, it would undoubtedly hold the balance of power in the new Parliament. Labor first definitely, as a united party, entered the British political field in 1906, when it succeded in having 41 members returned to Parliament. In 1910 it returned 40 and in December of the same year 42 members. Next month there are the best of reasons to believe that Labor will win its greatest triumph, and while we can hardly foresee that it will be sufficiently powerful in Parliament to form a Government, there is every reason to suppose that upwards of 100 Labor members will be found in the new House. Another aspect of the election is that there will be more parties seeking representation in the House of Commons than ever before. As well as the Lloyd George party there will be Liberals, Nationalists, Sinn Feiners, Ulster Unionists, Laborites, Independent Laborites (or Pacifists) and possibly one or two others.

As to the outcome there seems little reason to doubt that Mr. Lloyd George will be returned to power by a handsome majority. In the ranks of statesmanship there is no man in the world who has done more towards the winning of the war. He has been the dynamic political force, both before and since he became Prime Minister. The Allied nations owe to him in large part, not only the superlative efforts made by Britain, but also the appointment of Marshal Foch to the supreme command in the field, both elements which were largely responsible for the victory. It was his statesmanship which foresaw the need and promptly appealed for the sending of American reinforcements in large numbers last Spring, and it was due to his initiative that British shipping was made available so that those reinforcements could be carried overseas. He has been foremost in reconstruction plans, upon which he and his ministers have been at work ever since they assumed office two years ago. The people of the United Kingdom will, without doubt, give him the opportunity of finishing his great work. He has shown himself fully equipped for any task, no matter what its magnitude, and unquestionably he is the right leader to entrust with the many perplexing problems that will arise during the period of reconstruction.

PARLIAMENT'S DUTY

Were it possible to obtain an expression of public opinion, we believe it would be found unanimously in favor of Parliament being in session at this time. Peace has come and Canada is without a programme for reconstruction. Much has been talked about what is going to be done, but in all solemn candor it must be admitted Governments, both Federal and Provincial, have so far failed to enunciate definite policies that will solve the problems of reconstruction. The rehabilitation of our soldiers in civilian life will shortly become the outstanding question before the people. Parliament should be in session at this time—night and day—and should remain in session until there is an ample programme provided. It should be in session to place on record its attitude regarding this Dominion's part in the peace negotiations. It should be in session to deal with such pressing matters as the cost of living problem, the civil service salary question, and the need for increased allowances to soldiers' dependents. There never was a time when it was more desirable that Parliament should be in session, for every month's delay in solving the problems crowding in upon the country will tend to aggravate these and promote dissatisfaction among the people.

Britain is to have a new Parliament before she sends her delegates to the Peace Conference. Canada does not need a new Parliament at this time, since the people have given an overwhelming mandate to the Unionist party now enjoying power. What she does need is an expression of opinion from her Parliament as to what the Dominion's course should be at the Peace Conference. It is the first time Canada has been called upon to take her part directly in the political settlement of international affairs. No one doubts the fitness of Sir Robert Borden for the task of delegate, but the country, through its Parliament, would have chosen him. The right that belongs to Parliament is to instruct him on what his course should be. One of the principles on which the peace discussion will be based is open diplomacy. If that means anything, then it must be interpreted as meaning that the voice of parliaments will be substituted for the voice of diplomats, and that whatever is done, or to be done, will be an open book, which he who runs may read.

RATEPAYERS WILL SELECT CEMETERY

Several Sites Will be Put Before Them at Election as Referendum—Aldermen Visit Property on Carey Road.

At the city election in January the ratepayers will probably be offered the alternative of three or four sites for Victoria's new cemetery. They will be asked to make their choice, and the city will then proceed to make use of the option previously secured.

This new turn in the cemetery negotiations was announced at the City Hall yesterday. The Council dealt with the question about two months ago; in fact, had almost decided to purchase seventy acres in the Mount Tolmie district until eleventh-hour opposition nipped the project. Since that time several new sites have been offered, but it was not disclosed until yesterday that the almost certain course to be followed is the referendum route. This will take the responsibility entirely from the Mayor and aldermen and transfer it to the people.

The inter-municipal committee is meeting in the Council Chamber this morning to consider the whole situation and will probably take formal action along the line stated. Yesterday several members of the Council visited some property in the Carey Road district, owned by Dr. Griffiths, which has been offered as a cemetery site. The land consists of about one hundred acres, is four and a half miles from the heart of the city, is undulating, almost free from rock and mostly cleared.

MUCH OVERLAPPING IN DEPARTMENT WORK

Advisory Board of Farmers' Institutes Gives Minister of Agriculture Some Pertinent Suggestions.

The shortcomings of the present system of the Department of Agriculture were brought to the attention of the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, in a lengthy conference he held yesterday with the advisory board of Farmers' Institutes now in session at the Legislative Buildings. The whole subject was gone into at length, the conference occupying practically the entire afternoon session of the board. The necessity of complete reorganisation of the department to avoid the present overlapping which occurs through the various activities of the Board of Health, the Education Department, the Agricultural Department, as well as the work now being carried on in the Province by the Federal Agricultural Department, was urged, it being pointed out by members of the board that under the existing conditions much of the work being done is duplicated at an unnecessary high outlay while results have not been commensurate with the expenditure of time, effort and money. The evolution of some plan which will bring these various agencies together, eliminate the overlapping and reduce the present unnecessary expenditure was urged upon the Minister.

District Agency Plan

What is known as the District Agency plan, adopted in Eastern Provinces, was suggested for British Columbia. Under such a plan the department, instead of as at present sending out experts to all parts of the Province at large outlay to advise the farmers would, in such districts as were deemed important enough from the agricultural standpoint, station competent men, who would be in constant touch with the farmers of their particular districts and be always ready to advise them and see that their efforts were directed along proper lines.

Hon. Mr. Barrow agreed that some such policy would effect an improvement, and he promised that the suggestion would be given the fullest possible consideration.

The present undermanned condition of the department was also brought to the attention of the Minister, who was ready to admit he was cognizant thereof, but he pointed to the difficulty of securing good men in these abnormal times. The board claimed the department had lost good men because of the small salaries paid and that competent men were being overworked to the extent that their services could not be adequately taken advantage of. Further economies might well be practised in connection with some of the least important branches of the work and more attention paid to the main features.

Greater Concentration

The advisability of working to the end that there be an amalgamation of the activities of the at present numerous farmers' and allied organizations throughout the Province into some central body, was also discussed with the Minister, one member of the board pointing to the fact that in one month he had attended no less than fourteen meetings of as many bodies the work of which pertained to the interests of the agriculturist. One body that would cover the activities of these various organizations would, the members of the board believed, eliminate needless expenditures, promote greater harmony among the farmers of the Province and be productive of more concrete results in legislation and conditions governing the industry.

While the conference devoted most of the time to broad matters of policy, many subjects of a more definite nature were touched upon. The importance of seed production, especially in British Columbia, which is undoubtedly particularly favored as a centre of a great seed producing industry, was discussed, and Hon. Mr. Barrow assurred the members that the members that the Government is giving consideration to the matter and will do its utmost to promote the industry along sound lines.

Better Legislation

It was stated that the board has before it many applications for free farming machinery, stumping powder, etc., but that it is of the opinion that the farmers of the Province are now pretty well organized, and, given proper legislation, their needs can be provided for by themselves without financial assistance from the Government.

In connection with this important question of powder it was suggested that a system of bonusing the farmer for every acre cleared and a plan whereunder powder could be supplied on time, as is seed grain, notes to be taken from the farmer by the Government, should be considered. At the same time it was suggested that some change should be made to eliminate the present situation whereunder large amounts of public money are tied up through failure of farmers to pay amounts advanced them on notes for the purchase of seed grain.

Complaint was made that the seed distributed this year to the farmers was, in many instances, of poor quality In previous years no such complaints were made.

Praise Journal

Strong commendation was expressed of the work of the Agricultural Journal, the importance of which, it was stated, could not be overestimated.

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. J. B. Babcock, assistant Commissioner of Fisheries, was before the board and addressed the members on the subject of additional elasticity in the fishery regulations governing inland waters. He was in a position to inform the board that the matter has already been arranged between the Province and Dominion.

The sessions of the board will be continued today and probably tomorrow.

CIVIL SERVICE BONUS EFFECT UNCERTAIN

SASKATOON, Nov. 14.—Major McInnes, president of the Western Canada Interior Association, has received the following wire from Secretary Burling, of the Civil Service Federation of Canada:

"Conferences today failed to clear situation regarding bonus for outside service. The most generous interpretation would give the full $350 to those receiving less than $1,200 and $300 to those up to $1,400; lesser amounts, under varying interpretation, to higher salaries below $1,880.

"I believe that the lower grades will participate in the full $350," said Major McInnes. "There is still some doubt as to the increase to higher salaried workers. In view of the granting of this bonus, I would urge members of the Western Canada Interior Association to invest as large a portion as possible of the bonus in 1918 Victory Bonds."

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Bonus payments to the civil servants began today. The Finance Department employees were the first to receive their cheques, the married men receiving $125 and others $75. Other departments will be paid as soon as the cheques can be written.

He also announced that the navy yards at Mare Island, California, Philadelphia, Norfolk and New York which have enough work on hand now to keep them busy two years, will be enlarged.

STREET CARS COLLIDE

Fenders Smashed and Passengers Startled in Collision at Corner of Cook and Fort Streets.

By the narrowest of margins a serious accident was averted last evening at 6:45 o'clock, when an Uplands street car, bound downtown and fairly well filled with passengers, collided with a Foul Bay car rounding the corner from Cook Street to Fort Street. The latter car was making the turn when the other, which is supposed to stop as it approaches the corner, speeded ahead.

Only the prompt action by Motorman Parshley, on the Foul Bay car, prevented a serious collision. As it was, though he stopped his car promptly, the Uplands car crashed into the fender, ripping it off and losing its own fender. As it forged ahead the broken apron of the fender on the other ploughed along the side of the Uplands car, tearing away the woodwork.

The passengers in both cars were considerably startled when they heard the crash, but the shock was not a serious one, for none of the car windows were broken. In a few minutes the damaged fenders were removed and both cars proceeded downtown under their own power.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HAS BEEN POSTPONED

Influenza Situation Would Make Such Event Dangerous, Ald. Peden Informs Meeting.

Just as the final touch was being applied to the programme for the proposed drumhead memorial services at Beacon Hill next Sunday, Ald. Peden, chairman of the Health Board, halted further progress of the plans by declaring that such a ceremony would be at this time a menace to the health of the community.

Ald. Peden, who was supported by Dr. A. G. Price, Medical Health Officer, stated that the influenza situation in Victoria was still serious and that it might become more so if crowds were permitted to gather, as they surely would, at such an event as planned for Sunday.

As a result of his arguments, the services were postponed until such time as the health authorities consider safe. It is believed that by Sunday week the conditions will permit of the execution of the plans.

Mayor Todd presided at the meeting and among those present were a majority of the aldermen, Col. the Rev. G. H. Andrews, Chief of Police Langley, Lieut. Thomas Brown, representing the navy; Major M. V. Maguire, representing the military; City Engineer Preston, Parks Superintendent Purdy, Messrs. Tom Dooley and E. S. Woodward, of the Trades and Labor Council; Mr. Frank Giolma, M.P.P.-elect; Dr. A. B. Hudson, president of the Victoria Medical Society; Mrs. Macdonald Fahey, Mrs. David Miller, Mr. James McEwan and Mr. E. J. Bawden.

It was decided that whenever the event is held the programme outlined tentatively in yesterday's Colonist will be carried out.

PROXY WEDDING ENDS WIRELESS COURTSHIP

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Nov. 14.—After a courtship by wireless, a wedding by proxy, with the bride thousands of miles away, will unite Miss Emily Orsi, of Cairo, Egypt, and Lieutenant Rudolph Winzer, of Chicago, at the Great Lakes naval training station.

The romance began in Egypt when Lieutenant Winzer was assigned to the U.S.S. North Carolina. Miss Orsi is the daughter of an Italian marquis, and her mother was English. The marriage licence was obtained in Waukegan two months ago and a copy mailed to the bride, who obtained a similar document in Egypt and sent a copy to this country.

Agitating for Mooney

SEATTLE, Nov. 14.—Announcement was made today that the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council convention here yesterday passed a resolution urging that a pardon be given Thomas J. Mooney, convicted of murder in connection with a San Francisco Preparedness Day bomb explosion. The resolution suggested Mooney be given a new hearing by being placed on trial on one of several other murder indictments against him.

POSTHUMOUS AWARD OF MILITARY CROSS

Lieut. Rupert Eaton Was Not Destined to Wear Decoration Won By Gallant Conduct

LIEUT. RUPERT EATON

Letters regarding the late Lieut. Rupert ("Tim") Eaton have been received by the widowed mother of the young officer from officers of his unit who wished to express their sympathy to the bereaved relatives and at the same time convey some idea of the love and esteem in which Lieut. Eaton was held by all ranks. In one of the letters it is mentioned that the Military Cross has been awarded posthumously to the brave soldier. The following is a portion of the letter from Lieut. C. H. Seaman:

"I am writing to express my sincere sympathy on the loss of your son, in doing so I speak for all ranks of 'D' Company. We all feel his death very deeply. Your son and myself have been the closest of friends since he came to the Battalion. We were together in D Company from the time he first arrived in France until Christmas, when he went to battalion headquarters as intelligence officer. He returned to the company just before the battalion went into action on August 6 at Amiens. In that battle he greatly distinguished himself and for which he has been awarded the Military Cross. This award appears in orders yesterday, and it is doubly sad to think the boy is not here to wear his decoration.

"On September 27 your son went into action as second in command of D Company under my command. We reached our objective and held our position for twenty-four hours. This was the attack and capture of Burlon Wood.

"After capturing our objective we were subjected to extremely heavy machine gun fire, and about 6 p.m., while your son was talking to me, he was hit by a machine bullet and he died in my arms. It may be some small comfort to you to know his death was instantaneous."

LOCAL CASUALTIES

Driver Williams

Driver Allan E. Williams, 60th Battery, is now lying at Etaples Hospital, France, suffering from shell wounds in head and shoulder. Driver Williams is the son of Capt. Sidney Williams, of Mount Tolmie, and formerly attended the University School. He joined the 50th Gordon Highlanders in 1915, and left for overseas with the 15th Brigade, C. F. A., under Col. Ogilvie in May, 1916. While a cadet at the University School he won many prizes for rifle shooting, and this native ability with firearms he continued to show on the field of battle, having for some time had charge of a Lewis gun protecting his battery from hostile aircraft. Reassuring news of him was received yesterday by his parents, and his complete recovery from his recent injuries is hoped for.

Pte. Cathcart

Pte. Ernest A. Cathcart, who was well known both in Victoria and the Chemainus district, died on September 28 as the result of concussion and shell shock, a shell bursting a few yards from where he was standing in the firing line.

The following letter has been received by the widow, who lives at Chemainus, the lines being penned by the officer of the platoon to which Pte. Cathcart belonged:

"As his platoon officer, I always found your husband willing to do his duty. Only the previous day when we made a heavy attack on the enemy your husband showed great gallantry and devotion to duty, and I assure you I have lost one of the best soldiers I ever had in my platoon. He was highly respected by all his comrades, who join with me in extending to you and his friends our very deepest sympathy in your sad loss."

Capt. Norman Wood

Captain Norman Wood, of the 17th British Tank Battalion, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Stuart Wood, of Kamloops, and whose brother, Mr. Gordon Wood, is in Campbell's drug store, lost his life a few weeks ago. Shortly following the announcement of his death came a letter from Lieut.-Col. E. J. Carter, O.C. of the 17th Tank Battalion, with which Capt. Wood was fighting when he lost his life, stating that the young officer had been awarded the Military Cross "for services in the field." The award of the decoration was posthumous. Capt. Wood was killed on September 2. Before he joined the army Capt. Wood was engaged in land surveying and was well known all over the Province.

Sergt. Lewis

Sergt. W. D. Lewis, who left with the 88th Battalion on May 23, 1916, has had to have his right leg amputated as the result of serious injuries he received on the field of action recently, and he is now in the 1st Birmingham War Hospital, Rednal, England. Twice previously he was wounded. Sergt. Lewis was born in Nanaimo twenty-one years ago, and until the time he enlisted was living with his father, an old Crimean veteran, who is still hale and strong despite his ninety years.

BOG IRON FROM MONS TURNED INTO PIG IRON

Important Tests Now Being Made at Irondale of B.C. Product From P.G.E. Point —Extensive Development.

That bog iron from the vicinity of Mons, on the line of the P. G. E. Railway, is now being used with British Columbia magnetite ore and British Columbia limestone in the production of pig iron at the Irondale plant of the Pacific Steel Company, near Port Townsend, was the statement made yesterday by Mr. J. G. Davidson, who with Mr. F. S. Keith, of Montreal, and Mr. J. H. Thompson, of Vancouver, is interested in the deposits of bog iron near Mons and is arranging for the extensive exploitation of the deposits.

Mr. Davidson was in the city on his way back from the Irondale plant, with which arrangements were recently made for a trial shipment of 5,500 tons. The experiments carried out there with the ore were, Mr. Davidson indicated, satisfactory, but just to what extent he was not disposed to state until fuller tests have been made.

The deposits in the vicinity of Mons are stated to contain at least 500,000 tons and if the analysis turns out to be satisfactory, as it is expected it will, large quantities will be shipped over the P. G. E. line to Squamish and thence by boat to Irondale. The possibilities of the profitable business to be built up are great and large shipments of the ore will mean a very great increase in the freight to be handled by the Government railroad.

At present arrangements are being made for the construction of a railway from the deposits to connect with the P. G. E. line, a distance of about one mile.

NEW EMBLEMS BEING MADE FOR AUTO CLUB

The Island Automobile Association is now negotiating for a supply of new emblems that have been used so far were made of celluloid in Chicago, and the heat of the radiator pealed off the finish, completely ruining them. The new emblems will be of the same design, but will be made of either brass or nickel by a local firm.

At least 600 of these emblems will be made to accommodate the large increase in association membership which is to be procured by a campaign to begin about the beginning of the new year.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 14.—Lieuts. William V. Macusdy, of East St. Louis, and Albert R. Meyers, of Huron, S.D., were killed at Barron Field today when the aeroplane in which they were flying fell 4,000 feet while on a test flight.

City and District in Brief

Many Cases at Michel—Few reports of the Spanish influenza epidemic from points throughout the Province reached the Provincial Health authorities yesterday, but those that did arrive indicated little change in the situation from the previous days. Michel, in the Crow's Nest Pass district, reported a total of 425 cases, with three deaths.

Civil Service Examinations—Lieut. Gordon M. Campbell, R. F. C., was advised from Ottawa yesterday afternoon that owing to the epidemic of influenza which is prevalent all over Canada, it has been found necessary to postpone the competitive examinations which were to take place on the 15th (Friday) of this month, until the 13th December.

Navy League Thanks—Every day further supplies which will be much welcomed by our sailors and seamen are received at the Victoria branch of the Navy League rooms, Union Bank Building. Mrs. W. H. Rowlands, convener of the emergency supply for sailors' widows and children, during the last few weeks has shipped to England for distribution 277 articles. The work goes on continuously and further supplies will always be welcomed.

Dynamite for Gardening—To illustrate the value of subsoiling in gardening the Saanich School Board were asked at their last meeting to consider the use of dynamite at Royal Oak school during the present Winter. The suggestion was made by Supervisor Hallwright, who said that with the cessation of the manufacture of war munitions there would soon be large amounts of cheap and good farm explosives available to farmers and truck gardeners, and the proper use of these materials should be explained and the results to be attained demonstrated during the coming season.

Gordon Head Cantaloupes—At the last meeting of the Saanich School Board the value of Gordon Head soil was lightly touched upon in the course of a discussion on school gardens. Supervisor Hallwright remarked on the fact that the cantaloupes which he had grown at the Gordon Head school garden were as fine as any imported, and he thought that it would be a good thing for the district if the farmers went into the business commercially. Trustee Watson then remarked that the suitability of the soil to cantaloupe production had been known for the past twenty-five years.

Collision Case in Court—The action of Clark versus the B. C. Electric Railway Company was commenced yesterday in the County Court before Judge Lampman and a jury. W. A. Clark is suing the company for a sum not less than $50 and not more than $1,000 for damage done in a collision between his motor car and a street car of the defendant company, due to alleged negligence on the part of the driver of the latter. The accident occurred on September 5 last at the crossing of Lansdowne Road and Richmond Avenue. Mr. S. T. Hankey is appearing for plaintiff and Mr. G. H. Barnard, K.C., for defendants. The case was adjourned until today.

Victoria Prairie Club—As Winter months close in once more, and numerous visitors come for change and to evade the rigorous cold of the Prairies, it may be well to call attention to the fact of there being a Prairie Club in the city. Its membership is composed of resident and visiting Prairie people and the club rooms are open all the year round. Last Winter the organization did valuable work, supplying recreation, current Prairie daily newspapers and other literature, and providing a comfortable resort where conversation and social intercourse could be indulged in. Lectures and entertainments were also given in a limited way gratis. In the near future a general meeting will be held for the purpose of reorganization and an appeal is made for all interested Prairie people to attend and assist in making the club a success. Due notice of meeting will be given in the public press. The club rooms are 108-109 Union Bank Building, which all visitors are cordially invited to visit.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food are in probably nine cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antiacid, such as bisurated magnesia which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestants. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisurated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.

CLAIMS APPOINTMENT IN PUBLIC INTEREST

Such Is the Reply of Acting Premier to Returned Soldiers Relative to Naming of Mr. McInnes.

That the appointment of Mr. W. H. McInnes to the position of Civil Service Commissioner, in succession to Comptroller-General A. N. Mouat, who recently resigned the office, was made by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council in what that body believes, is in the interest of the public, was the gist of the reply which Acting Premier and Attorney-General Farris makes to the representations presented to him on Wednesday afternoon by a deputation representing the returned soldiers' organizations of Victoria.

The deputation, it will be remembered, took exception to the appointment of Mr. McInnes without the Government first having sought to ascertain if there was not available a returned man capable of holding the position, one that, in view of the provisions of the Civil Service Act and the Government's declared policy of working in the best interests of the returned men, could fittingly be occupied by a returned man. The deputation urged upon the acting Premier that Mr. McInnes' appointment should be rescinded and applications called for the position, thus giving full opportunity for returned men as well as others to apply. In that way the qualifications of applicants would be ascertained and if a returned man suitable for the position was available the Government would be apprised of the fact.

Acting Premier Farris promised to take the matter up with his confreres and notify the deputation by letter yesterday morning, a step he took, according to the communication received yesterday afternoon by Lieut. Heinekey, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association. This communication set forth that the matter had come before the Cabinet and that body believes that in its appointment of Mr. McInnes it has acted in the best interests of the public.

The acting Premier's reply will be considered at a meeting of the executive committee of the veterans' organization tonight. What action will be taken by it is not being predicted, but it is stated the reply from the acting Premier is not considered at all satisfactory by members of the organization.

ADVERTISING BRINGS VERY GOOD RESULTS

The Pacific Northwest Tourist Association have commenced their Winter advertising on the prairies to induce the people to come to the coast during the Winter months. This publicity aids the work of the local Development Association. Applications for information about Victoria brought about by the advertising of the larger organization are referred to Miss Taylor here and she sends the information and literature desired. The first list of names arrived yesterday and numbered 13, all from the prairies.

Most of the housekeeping rooms in the list which Miss Taylor keeps for the benefit of new comers are in the James Bay district. She has been able to please every applicant that she has had for rooms.

The advertisement setting forth the advantages of Victoria in the B. C. Veterans' Weekly in the coming issue will tell of the "Modern City," with its 132 miles of concrete sidewalks, 65 miles of boulevards, 71 miles of paved street, eight miles of cluster electric light standards and 134 miles of water mains. It also will speak of the fine office buildings, theatres, hotels, apartments, etc. These ads are written by Miss Taylor now that there is no publicity commissioner.

BUCKSKIN GLOVES WANTED

A use has been found at the Military Convalescent Hospitals for good strong buckskin gloves. These are useful as long as the fingers are in good shape, but they must be fairly heavy buckskin and not light kid. The gloves are used in connection with the training of the muscles of some soldiers who have been wounded in the hands or arms. The Red Cross Society asks that any one having gloves of this kind will kindly leave them at the Temple Building, so that this small demand may be immediately supplied.

SEES THE TELESCOPE MOUNTED PERMANENTLY

Mr. G. P. Burrell, Manager of Warner & Swasey, of Cleveland, Who Designed Mounting and Dome.

One of the most interested of the many visitors who have gone out to see the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory at Saanich Mountain is Mr. G. P. Burrell, manager of the Warner & Swasey Co., who with Mrs. Burrell are spending a few days here as the guests of Dr. J. S. Plaskett, Director of the Observatory, and Mrs. Plaskett.

As Victoria people by this time know, the telescope mounting and the dome of the big observatory were both designed and built by the Warner & Swasey Co., of Cleveland, of which Mr. Burrell has been manager for the last ten years. On several occasions Dr. Plaskett has had occasion to refer to the fact that it was very largely owing to the keen interest, united with the genius, of Mr. Burrell that the big instrument has proved such a fine addition to the world's equipment for astronomical research work. Naturally the manager of the Warner & Swasey Company must have wished to see the great engine in its permanent position, but until the present week Mr. Burrell had never visited Victoria, and consequently had not seen the Observatory.

Owing to the state of the weather for the past three days it was impossible for the visitors to make any observations through the telescope until last night, when the sky cleared up for a short time. Although the telescope was completely erected and fitted at Cleveland in March, 1916, at the Warner & Swasey works in Cleveland, this gave but a poor idea of the really fine appearance which it presents, and yesterday Mr. Burrell spoke of his impressions of the giant instrument properly mounted as at present as compared with its appearance dismounted.

"Seeing the dome without the covering and the telescope without the glass in two entirely different places is quite different," said Mr. Burrell. "It was difficult in the factory to conceive the combined effect of the different units as they now appear. Although we gave the instrument a little test at the works, we had not the facilities for adequately trying it out; it was not mounted on a solid base as it is here, and there was not the latitude for the use of it."

Comparing it with the Mount Wilson, Lick and other large observatories which he had seen, Mr. Burrell could find no point in which the Astrophysical Observatory at Victoria was inferior. In this modest observation Mr. Burrell is borne out by practically all the scientific men who have visited here, and who invariably remark on the aesthetic form of the building as well as the mountings, compared with oft-times awkward and clumsy-looking, even if highly efficient, constructions.

Doing War Work

Since the United States entered the war the Warner & Swasey Company have been doing a great deal for the American Government in making special instruments, range-finders, sights for rifles, etc., their staff of eight hundred employees being just about doubled in order to cope with the heavy orders which had to be filled. Since the Spring of 1917, when they were called upon to undertake this work, they have done nothing whatever in the way of designing telescopes or other astronomical instruments, all this work being suspended "for the duration."

Just how soon the breaking off of hostilities with the Germans will bring about a restoration of the pre-war conditions Mr. Burrell does not know. He and Mrs. Burrell left Cleveland for the West Coast on Thursday last week, the day that the false message of peace reached this hemisphere and set the world celebrating. They were in Chicago the following day and on all sides saw the marks of past jubilation. On reaching Seattle they settled down to the celebration there of the peace news which arrived on Monday morning. Consequently up to the present Mr. Burrell has had no intimation as to wether his firm is "carrying on" just as before he left, or whether they have reverted to their pre-war work.

One of the big contracts which they have to fill is for a 60-inch instrument for the National Observatory of the Argentine Republic. This is to be erected near Cordova. A second big instrument which they have to complete is a 37-inch telescope for Tucson, Arizona. Speaking of the former, Mr. Burrell remarked that the Argentine Republic and Canada, in proportion to their populations, had done better than any other countries in respect to securing good astronomical equipment. This, it was remarked, might be due to the enthusiasm of the special men who were advocating astronomical research work in the respective countries.

Mr. Burrell is a graduate of Cornell University and an expert engineer. One of the most important features of the dome at the Observatory at Saanich is the observing platform, which travels on curved rails on the main ribs of the dome and is maintained horizontally by an ingenious differential hoisting arrangement. This observing platform, it is maintained, is a considerable advance over anything of the kind previously designed for the purpose, and is accredited to Mr. Burrell's genius.

The New, Better and Safer Way to Wash Your Hair

Dandruff is the primary cause of falling hair. This disagreeable condition of the scalp and hair glands is almost certain to cause temporary or permanent baldness.

Loss of hair may also be ascribed to the use of improper shampoos containing irritating substances, animal oils and alcohol, any of which may produce gradual decay of the hair.

Don't use a stale liquid preparation that contains too much alkali (a harmful irritant). The surest, safest and easiest way is to make your own liquid. Buy a carton of Velvar at any drug store. Dissolve one of the small packets into half glass of fresh water and you will have an abundance of non-injurious liquid that will relieve itching of the scalp, falling hair and dandruff; also improve the natural color of the hair. Velvar being in concentrated form never spoils and will keep forever.

SAANICH MAY REVISE TEACHERS' SALARIES

School Board Will Consider New Scheme of Paying Yearly Increases—School Hours Will Not Be Changed.

The Saanich School Board at its last meeting considered the question of changing the system of payment of the teaching staff, the attention of the board being directed to the need of a change from the present plan by a letter from Superintendent May, of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

The present system of allocating a certain salary to a particular schoolroom has been found to have many disadvantages, according to Mr. May, chief among them being the fact that, to enable the board to raise a teacher's salary, it is necessary that she be transferred to another class. The result in several cases which were called to the attention of the board has been that a teacher who has given great satisfaction in a particular position has been found entirely unsuited to the position to which it has been necessary to transfer her in order to give her the raise in salary which length of service and previous excellent record have entitled her to expect.

Yearly Raise Is Suggested

A new system of payment was recommended to the board, which would provide for small annual increments in salary with the passing of the years in the service of the board, and an additional payment to those of the staff who secure higher certificates while in the employment of the board. In addition, the plan provides for a graduation of salaries according to responsibility. The tentative suggestions made to the board were approved, and Secretary Cowper was instructed to prepare a detailed scheme for the revision of the salary list and present it at a meeting of the board to be held shortly. With the new suggestions the secretary was instructed to submit a tabulated statement of the effect which such a change will have on the salaries of the various members of the staff and the additional expense to which such a change will commit the board.

It was felt by the trustees that unless some change were made with the new year pending upward revision of the salary list of the Victoria School Board would drain Saanich of its best teachers in the course of a year.

Uniform Hours Not Favored

A short discussion took place on the proposal to open the schools at 9 o'clock all the year round in place of the present system of starting at 9 o'clock in the Summer and at 9:30 in the Winter months, and the board decided to make no change, feeling that the conditions in the rural districts were greatly different from those in the city. It was pointed out by Chairman Brooks that the country children generally have a number of morning chores and other household duties to perform, and with the short period of daylight preceding the hour for departure to school in the Winter months, a change to the earlier hour in the Winter would not be popular with either parents or pupils.

BOND SALES ARE COMING WITH RUSH

More Firms Qualify for Place on Honor Roll of 100 Per Cent. Subscribers to Victory Loan—Small Investors.

Just as so many people put off their Christmas shopping until the last thing Christmas eve, so apparently the last rush is commencing in the Victory Loan campaign, and a peak load may be expected today and tomorrow—the last two days of the greatest financial drive Victoria ever tackled.

Twenty-five new names of firms and families were added to the honor emblem list yesterday. The lists are to be kept open until the signal is given to "cease fire" and the completed honor roll should be an interesting document for future study.

Appeal to Small Investors

"It is to be hoped that the public fully realize that a $50 application is as potent as one for $1,000, as the honor roll is a roster of individuals and not dollars," said Mr. George Bushby, manager of the emblem compaign, yesterday. "A young clerk, in investing $50 possibly at great personal sacrifice, is an important factor in the state and is at the same time commencing to lay the foundation of a thrifty career. It is the first hundred dollars, which is the hardest to save and during the process of saving the character of the individual is being healthily developed."

Yesterday's addition to the honor roll follow:

LADYSMITH TOPS ITS ALLOTMENT

Will Keep Home Fires Burning With $100,000 Worth of Victory Bonds—How Other Island Centres Stand.

Ladysmith reached the top of the Victory shaft yesterday by subscribing its quota of $100,000. The city is now in the select circle of Vancouver Island towns that have done their full share towards keeping the home fires burning.

All Island centres are now over the top except Nanaimo, Alberni and Central Alberni, and have been awarded their honor flags. In Nanaimo and the Albernis the "flu" is said to have interfered seriously with the campaign, but in both places subscriptions are continuing to come in, according to figures received at local headquarters yesterday.

Central Alberni is a sub-division of the Parksville district for the purposes of the Loan campaign. It includes the settlements along the E. & N. Railway from Parksville to Alberni Summit, and the Island organization thinks that possibly the quota was set too high. Parksville district as a whole was allotted $40,000 and has subscribed $48,300.

Up-Island Returns

Following are the up-to-date returns from all Island towns, exclusive of Victoria:

GERMAN TROOPS ARE PILLAGING

Evidence That Commanders Are Losing Control Over Men — Excesses Are Reported From Brussels Region

LONDON, Nov. 14. — A significant message from the Allied High Command has been sent out by the French Government wireless station. It reads:

"The commanders of the German armies continue to propose to the commanders of the Allied armies facing them that they should immediately hand over their war material and prisoners to the Allies."

The German soldiers in various sections of the occupied territory have been getting out of hand. In some places they have attacked their commanders and raised the red flag of revolt.

German soldiers are committing acts of violence against inhabitants and are destroying and pillaging contrary to the terms of the armistice, according to a French official wireless message received here today.

The message, which is from the Allied High Command to the German High Command, says that the Allied command expects the German command to take measures to stop the violations. If the acts increase, it is added, the Allied command will take steps to end them.

The wireless message reads:

"From Marshal Foch to the German High Command:

"It has been learned by the Allied High Command that at different points, especially in Belgium and more particularly in the Brussels region, the German troops are committing acts of violence against the inhabitants and acts of destruction and pillage which are clearly contrary to the conditions of the armistice.

"The Allied command expects that the German High Command will without delay, take measures to stop these violations of the conditions which have been signed. If the acts do not cease within a very short period, the Allied High Command will be obliged to take steps to put an end to them."

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 14.—Ninety persons have been killed or injured in street fighting at Brussels, the Belgian capital, according to an announcement here today.

CANADIAN FLIER FIGHTS SIXTY

Remarkable Exploit of Major Barker, of New Brunswick, is Told in Report From Headquarters.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Canadian military headquarters in London announces that the airman who while desperately wounded fought 60 enemy machines singlehanded, destroying four and bringing down six, is a Canadian, Maj. W. G. Barker, D. S. O., D. F. C., M. C. and the Italian Cross of Honor. Major Barker, who is reported dangerously wounded, came overseas with a New Brunswick unit.

The story of Major Barker's fight with a horde of enemy planes relates the most astounding individual aerial combat on record. While our airmen were harrying the enemy's retreat, Barker when over the forest of Morval, encountered a two-seater German plane and at an altitude of 21,000 feet, to evade the fire of British "Archies" climbed and brought it down. Immediately a Fokker biplane whirled on him; bullets whistled past through his machine and some stunned him for a moment, so that his machine spun uncontrolled. Recovering his senses and control he found 15 more Fokers hemming him in and firing point blank. Without hesitation he went to the attack, and three of the assailants fell. But the bullets were whistling fast, and a chance shot shattered his thigh bone; he fainted and dived seemingly to his death.

Again recovering consciousness, he turned upon another 15 enemy scouts swooping about him like hounds. One he sent whirling down on fire, when another bullet struck his left elbow.

Enemy machines were now swarming as thick as gnats on a summer day. He dived, and eight of his foes hurtled like stones in pursuit. Wounded and half fainting, yet with his brain still alert and cool, he realized that his only chance of safety lay in sheer superior airmanship. Enemy aircraft flew above and about him like a cloud of vultures until those watching below counted between 50 and 60. In the thick of them this amazing Canadian performed every stunt which ingenuity, sharpened by dire necessity, could devise. He escaped by the incredible daring of his offensive tactics. For upward of ten minutes he banked, looped, spun, nose dived, climbed again in a multitude of star tricks until he worked his way back of the vultures' midst. Two more fell to his gun, then the rest of the flock spread and fled. He came down a huddled, insensible, but victorious hero of as great a flight as ever this war witnessed in the air.

A Victoria Cross is secure.

GIVES ENGLAND HER DUE CREDIT

Mr. Short, President of State Federation of Labor at Washington, Speaks of Spirit Shown.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 14.—"So long as a drop of red blood courses in the veins of the last of us, so long as a British ship floats on the seas, Germany will have to continue the war."

"That is what they said in England last May when Hindenburg was driving forward. We got there just when the Fifth Army had given way, when it looked as if the Germans would reach the coast, in the very blackest hour of the war. But there was no panic in England. There were set jaws and grim faces and a determination to fight to the last man and the last shilling."

Now that the fighting is over the curtain is lifting on the England of the days of the German drive. Men who were there officially, and who saw things and learned appalling facts—facts, that is, that would have appalled any but the people of Great Britain—are now opening their mouths and telling the inside story. One who was able to do so came to Vancouver today, Mr. William Short, president of the State Federation of Labor of Washington. Mr. Short was one of the labor delegation sent by the Government of the United States to the trenches last Spring to see what the war was really like and come back and spur the people of this continent to further effort and further sacrifice.

"Nobody will ever know what England has done in this war," he continued. And when Mr. Short said England, he meant England. He went on to tell how German propaganda had accused England of sacrificing first the French, then the men from the overseas Dominions, and lastly the Scotch and Welsh, and saving the English-born.

"On official authority I can tell you," he said, "that of the 800,000 British casualties of the year 1917, 600,000 were Englishmen."

Mr. Short is one of the leading labor men of Washington State. A dozen years ago he worked in the mines in Ladysmith, B. C., for a brief period. Removing to Washington, he rose to the head of the United Mine Workers.

Accompanying Mr. Short are Mr. George McGillivray, secretary of the industrial division of the Liberty Loan, Washington, and Mr. W. F. Meierd, corporation counsel for the city of Seattle, who is organizing the transfer of the Scattle Street Railway to the city. The party came up to assist in the Victory Loan drive, and went to Nanaimo this afternoon, where they will try to galvanize the old coal town into greater loan activity.

Riot in Buenos Ayres

PTE. PERCY LOWTHER REPORTED WOUNDED

SALT SPRING ISLAND, Nov. 14.—Pte. Percy Lowther, of Ganges, who was lately reported wounded, has been removed from Colchester to Baxhill Hospital, where he will be for some time. Pte. Lowther is suffering from the results of gas poison and was wounded in the right arm while lying on the field before being picked up by the ambulance. A bullet struck his water bottle, passing right through it. Pte. Lowther left Victoria with the 30th Battalion in 1915 and with the 7th Battalion went through several engagements. He was in England for two years and last Spring returned to France when he was wounded.

Why Not Be Distinguished by Sound, Wholesome Teeth?

Seldom do you find people of prominence in the business, social or professional world with ugly, offensive teeth. As a rule, when one has made his mark in the world, the very training on the road that leads up to success points the way also to personal efficiency—good health and sound teeth.

Rather than be burdened with teeth that are a nuisance, instead of a comfort, have your teeth that are not sound made so. The work, if carried out in this office, will be scientifically performed, and you won't find our charges high.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. ZIELINSKA, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KNEELS, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

SOME GOOD BOXING SEEN AT WILLOWS

Rifleman McIntyre Won Decision From Miller of H.M.S. Lancaster—Darky Daniels Gives Exhibition.

At th Willows Camp on Wednesday evening a very interesting boxing tournament was held by the soldiers in camp, of whom some 2,000 were present to witness the bouts, as well as a number of naval officers and a few privileged civilians by invitation.

The main event on the programme was a nine-round go between Rifleman McIntyre of the Siberian Expeditionary Force, and Seaman Miller, of H. M. S. Lancaster. This was a very interesting bout between two men of widely differing styles, the soldier favoring the American style and Miller boxing in the more open straight-up style of the English ring. W. H. Davies, who refereed, says that McIntyre had the better of seven out of the nine rounds and won the decision accordingly. It was a very clean exhibition of the ring game, fought in very sportsmanship manner by both the boys.

Darky Daniels gave a three-round exhibition with Samuels, and this bout, though very one-sided, was certainly a treat to ring followers who saw it, Daniels' work being very fast and clever, although he was not called on to extend himself against his sparring partner.

Stoker Blakely was too big and too good for Mick Fury, who put up a good fight, but had no chance against his heavier opponent. The other preliminary to the main event, between McClusky and Fallon, had plenty of action in it, but Fallon was too much for McClusky and had him nearly helpless when the bout ended.

Thompson won in the first round on a foul from Styson, and Lce.-Cpl. Blower goth the decision at the end of three rounds from Rifleman Conover.

SENIOR RUGBY FALLS DOWN IN ONTARIO

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Lieut. Harry Fleming, of the Machine Gun Corps, Exhibition Camp, notified Beaches today that he would be unable to place a team in the O.R.F.U., senior series, and so, after the most unsatisfactory negotiations on record, in which many teams announced their intention of playing and then did "a right about face," the fans will see no senior league games.

VANCOUVER EXPECTS RESUMPTION OF SOCCER

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—No definite data has been set for the lifting of the ban on public gatherings, but it is pretty well understood that the lid will be off before the week is finished. The city council are evidently taking a little time to see whether any ill effects result from the throngs of Sunday and Monday nights, and are playing safe.

As to soccer games following, Secretary Jack Spence, of the Vancouver and District League, stated last night that the schedule would be resumed one week from next Saturday. The games which have been missed will be played at the end of the season, the same as any regularly postponed games. Meanwhile, when meetings are again allowed, there will have been time before Saturday of next week for the league to hold a meeting and take up business where it was interrupted.

Captain L. O. Hillier, president of the Rugby Union, said last night that a meeting of the union would be held in No. 2 Firehall at 8 o'clock on the evening after the town is thrown open, unless this should happen on a Saturday, in which event there will be a meeting on Monday night. In any event, further notice will be given.

The Junior Alliance will stage their games next Saturday according to schedule. The epidemic seemed to affect them less than the senior organizations.

MAJORS AND MINORS MAY NOW START WORK

Protest Against Drafting of Stars From the Secondary Leagues May Be Cause of Upheaval.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 14.—War between major and minor leagues threatens to develop from action taken at the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues here today, protesting against the privilege of the major leagues to draft star players from the minors.

The protest was embodied in a resolution drawn by A. R. Tearney, of Chicago, president of the Three League, and presented by Jack Holland, owner of the St. Joseph, Mo., club of the Western League. The resolution demanded that the American and National Leagues relinquish the right of draft and also the practice of "farming out" players under the optional agreement. It was adopted without a dissenting vote.

INTERMEDIATE RUGBY

V.I.A.A. and Royal Naval College Teams Meet Again Tomorrow—University Quarantined

At the Royal Athletic Park tomorrow afternoon the V. I. A. A. intermediate Rugby team will meet the Royal Naval College XV. again. Influenza has interfered with the intermediate Rugby schedule just as it has done with all other sport in Victoria, and in consequence the University School Rugby team will not be able to fill any engagements in the league series for some time to come, the school authorities having decided to maintain a quarantine until two weeks after the ban has been lifted in the city.

Tomorrow's game will be refereed by W. H. Spalding, and will start promptly at 3 p. m. It has been decided by the league officials that the game must be started promptly at the advertised time, and the referee has been requested to see that this decree is carried out.

FRAGMENTS SOCCER TEAM

Pitts Is Hors de Combat With "Flu" and Several Other Players Out of the Game

The following team will represent the Fragments in their soccer league game against the Foundation tomorrow at Oak Bay: Townsend; Gomm and Bowers; Symonds, Freeman and Gutteridge; McIlmoyle, Bloom, Southern, Moncur and Forsythe.

The Fragments have been having their share of the prevailing sickness; Pitts, the captain of the team, was taken to the hospital yesterday afternoon with Spanish influenza; Harper and Robbins have been ill for the last three weeks and are both still in bed; Bruce is unable to play owing to the punishment handed out by the league.

The game starts at 3 p.m. and will be refereed by Sergt.-Major Jones. There is some talk of a tug-of-war between teams of H.M.S. Lancaster and Foundation to be pulled at half time.

ITALIANS DECORATE OLD OXFORD "BLUE"

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—Friends at the University of Pennsylvania and in the city of Major Vivian Nickalls, of the British army, will be glad to learn the Italian Croce di Guerra has been awarded to the late rowing coach at the university for conspicuous heroism during the fighting on the Italian front.

Major Nickalls was well known as an oarsman at Oxford, England, and came to this country eight years ago as coach of the Detroit Boat Club. Two years later he was called to the University of Pennsylvania as the successor to Ellis Ward. In July, 1915, a year before his contract was ended with Penn., Nickals resigned to answer his country's call for fighting men.

OVERALL RELAY RACE IS AMUSING STUNT

CAMP KEARNY, SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 14.—The influenza quarantine here brought forth many novel events designed for giving the men physical training and keeping in good spirits. Among them was the "overall relay."

In this event, an ordinary "shuttle relay" course 100 yards long was laid out and teams of ten each organized. The first man of each team ran the first lap, 100 yards—wearing a pair of fatigue breeches over his uniform. "Fatigue breeches" virtually are blue overalls. At the end of his lap he seated himself, removed the breeches and tossed them to the next man of his tam, who put them on and ran the next lap. This process was continued until each man had run one lap.

The 48th field artillery's regimental team won the event, the first time it was produced. The parade ground happened to be slightly muddy that day from the light rain, and officers said while the race might not have done a great deal toward developing the soldiers physically, it surely did much toward "keeping their spirit up."

Toe Hold and Head Lock No New Inventions—Champion Wrestler Must Be All-Round Man

In commenting on various holds used by wrestlers, a student of the grappling game says:

"The head scissors has been successfully developed by Strangler Lewis, one of the best of modern wrestlers.

"The toe hold was invented by Frank Gotch, who used it successfully for many years."

With the exception that Lewis did not develop the head scissors and that Earl Caddock, present champion, who is overseas, employed it with great success, the statement is correct. It is true that Lewis at times used the head scissors, which is applied by locking the legs about the victim's head and putting on pressure with it. The hold that Lewis perfected was the flying head lock. This consists of getting the victim's head in chancery and putting on pressure by squeezing the skull with the arms against the side of the body.

As to Gotch inventing the toe hold, that is a fallacy. The toe hold was invented before Gotch was out of swaddling clothes, but he employed it with more success than any other grappler, ancient or modern.

No really great wrestler ever sincerely specialized in holds, unless it might have been old Strangler Lewis. Many of the champions have permitted the word to go abroad that some particular hold was their stronghold, their favorite, and when the public caught hold, fostered the illusion by every means in their power. Gotch was a notable instance. No wrestler ever became great through specialty. To become one of the really great men on the mat, a man must be an all-around performer of excellence.

Frank Gotch, famous because of the toe hold, was a great wrestler otherwise. He always said that if he could not throw a man without the toe hold, he could not down him with it. Doubtless, just as truly, a man using the head lock, the strangle, or any of the freak grips, could not succeed simply because of that hold, even against an opponent of inferior calibre.

The headlock, as employed by the Lewis of today, and some of the other boys, is a very handy hold in hippodrome, but against a strong, wary foe it is of little avail in sincere contest. It is a very questionable lock in a fair play match, anyway, and, so regarded, might well be barred, much as the strangle hold employed by the old-time Lewis when champion, would be barred in wrestling of today. But it would be ridiculous to style the headlock and the strangle as the same. The Lewis of 1885 really did strangle his men, his neck clutch being no camouflage head lock, but a deadly pressure on the windpipe. With that hold permitted, as in his day, Lewis, the old, was a terrible customer on the mat. He was wont to go into his men winging, his leads with his hands being hard, swinging cross smashes, as the boxer would use his glove today, while he struck out sideways with his feet in awful kicks to trip his adversary.

FRED McCULLOUGH MAY BE SIGNED BY OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. — The Ottawa Hockey Club has several new players in prospect. One of those recommended to the Ottawas, and who will likely be found in red, white and black when the season gets under way is Lieut. Fred McCullough, a local boy and a city league graduate, who formerly played for Victoria in the Pacific Coast League. Lieut. McCullough served overseas for two years, and was decorated last year with the military cross for heroism under fire. He is home on leave and will likely be here for the coming winter. Lieut. McCullough's hockey services still belong to the Pacific Coast League, though the Ottawas hope to arrange a transfer from the Patricks, and feel confident that they will get it.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 14.—Boxing will be a major sport at the University of Minnesota. The board of athletic control has placed it on the same basis as football and baseball. Tournaments are planned for the winter.

WILL ASK COUNCIL'S AID IN LIFTING BAN

Business Organizations to Go Before Mayor and Aldermen This Afternoon to Urge Modification of Measure.

Representatives of the Board of Trade, Rotary Club, Retail Merchants' Association and Manufacturers' Association will press their claim for a modification of the influenza ban before a meeting of the City Council this afternoon at 2:30.

Mayor Todd was notified yesterday that a delegation representing these bodies desired to lay its arguments before the Council, and he promptly arranged for the aldermen to hear them while sitting as a Streets Committee.

As outlined in yesterday's Colonist, the demand is for a withdrawal of the closing order on private business establishments and churches, and a rigid quarantine of families affected by influenza.

Opposition is certain to be forthcoming. Ald. Peden, chairman of the Health Board, who has been backing Dr. A. G. Price, Medical Health Officer, in all the measures taken for the control of the epidemic here, will probably make the chief reply to the delegation.

Sixty-four new cases were reported to the health authorities yesterday.

The latter, with an area of 1,588 acres, bought for $21,501 by W. B. Barwis, Vancouver, is situated on the east side of the Stave River, and is a particularly good logging proposition.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Some 2,000 employees of the military service branch throughout the Dominion are to be released shortly, unless unexpected developments occur. Sufficient staff will be retained to keep organization together for any need which might arise till the conclusion of peace. The Military Service Act was suspended some days ago.

Will Not Reduce Taxes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Uncertainty of future Government expenditures and of policies for curtailment of war production makes it advisable, in the opinion of treasury officials, that the taxes under the pending revenue bill be not reduced materially below the $6,250,000,000 carried by the measure as drafted in the Senate.

CITY OF NANAIMO BOYS VICTORY BONDS

Will Invest $20,000 of Sinking Funds in Government Securities — Store Closing By-Law to be Introduced.

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—At a meeting of the Nanaimo Council Tuesday evening City Comptroller Gough informed the board that the city had $20,000 worth of sinking funds available for investment, and, on the motion of Alderman Forrester the City Comptroller and the Finance Committee were instructed to invest the amount in Victory Bonds through the medium of the local committee.

Mr. A. Scarf applied for a licence to carry on business as a second-hand and junk dealer. The application was referred to the Finance and Legislative Committees for investigation and action.

Mayor McKenzie reported his action in arranging the patriotic demonstration last Monday. To Mr. David Stephenson, who marshalled the parade, and the Silver Cornet Band, which supplied the music, the Council extended thanks.

Alderman Bushby was granted permission to introduce at the next meeting of the Council a by-law regulating the early closing of stores.

The Council approved the payment of accounts for the month of October totalling $8,477.92.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—The Nanaimo City Council met Tuesday evening as a Board of Health and discussed the local situation arising out of the influenza epidemic. The board was given the pleasing information that although there were a number of serious cases being treated, the epidemic was abating, but though the situation had considerably improved there were no immediate prospects of the ban being raised on public meetings. Permission was asked of the Board of Health by the Nanaimo Victory Loan Campaign Committee to hold a parade some evening this week, permission being granted subject to the approval of the Medical Health Officer.

NANAIMO STILL BUSY

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—Nanaimo should reach the $325,000 mark today in its big drive for the sale of Victory Bonds. The campaign closes on Saturday which means that Nanaimo has three days in which to sell sufficient bonds to put the city over the top and win for it an Honor Flag, the ambition of the local committee. The next few days are expected to be extremely busy ones. The committee anticipates an eleventh-hour rush, but, whatever the rush, every applicant for a Victory Bond will have his or her wants attended to. In the short time remaining it will be impossible for the canvassers to reach every home in the city, and those not visited are urged to call at the loan headquarters in the Windsor Block at any hour of the day or evening.

WORK MUST CONTINUE

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—Mrs. L. Martindale, regent of Bastion Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, has issued the following appeal to the citizens of Nanaimo:

"Owing to the necessary ban placed upon meetings of any kind, we are taking this method of communicating with our members and the many friends who so generously assist us in our work. Although hostilities have ceased and we rejoice because of this fact, our work must not cease for some time to come. Comforts for our men 'over there' will be needed as much as ever, therefore we shall continue our knitting and sewing and the methods of raising funds as long as the necessity exists.

"After that our activities will continue, but along other lines, for the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire is a permanent organization and will always be found at attention and ready for action whenever duty calls.

"We would remind our friends that, providing conditions are normal again, we shall hold our annual Christmas Fair on the 13th and 14th of December. A fuller announcement of the Fair will be made in a few days."

STILL MORE DEATHS REPORTED IN NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—The death occurred yesterday morning of Sarah, wife of Mr. J. L. Fisher, of Prideaux Street, aged 39 years. The remains are at McAdie's undertaking parlors pending funeral arrangements.

The death of Matthew Alderson occurred in the Nanaimo Emergency Hospital Tuesday afternoon. Deceased had been a resident of Chase River for the past five years. He was a native of England, aged 31 years, and leaves to mourn his death his wife and three small children; also a sister, Mrs. Douglas Crossan, of this city. The funeral took place this morning from Jenkins' undertaking parlors, Rev. Dr. Unsworth officiating.

The funeral of Rosette Ellen, wife of Charles Dent, of Victoria Road, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from McAdie's undertaking parlors, Rev. S. Ryall officiating.

TRUSTEES PLEASED BY SCHOOL GARDEN WORK

Saanich School Board Congratulates Supervisor on Results Attained by Year's Work.

After hearing the report of Mr. H. E. Hallwright, supervisor of school gardens in Saanich, as to the results which have been attained during the past year, Chairman Brooks, of the Saanich School Board, summarized the opinions of the Board as follows: "You have done well, indeed, Mr. Hallwright. All the district is well satisfied with the results which you have attained and the instruction which the children have received. I am sure that your work has been a great help, and I hope that it will be carried on during the next year. Speaking personally as a farmer, I know nothing about gardening, but I am glad that my children have had the opportunity to learn so much, and I know that this is the general feeling among the parents of the children attending the Saanich schools."

Trustees McGregor and Watson agreed with the sentiments expressed by the chairman.

Mr. Hallwright stated that much of the good which had been attained in Saanich had been due to the policy which the Board had followed with consistency, claiming that by leaving wide discretionary powers to him the trustees had enabled him to spend money where needed to ensure success, and thereby encourage the children to continue the work with enthusiasm. Mr. Hallwright reported that the only drawbacks to the complete success of the school gardens in Saanich during the past year had been the depredations of poultry and thieves, with occasional incursions by hungry cattle.

Frontier Closed

ELEMENTS FROM REMOTE PARTS OF THE GLOBE

Famous Tanlac Draws Medicinal Properties From Points Far Away From America—Noted Chemist Directs Laboratories.

The ingredients or medicinal elements which make Tanlac come from many remote sections of the earth—West Indies, Mexico, Peru, Central America, the Alps, the Pyrenees, Africa, Russian Asia, Arabia, Persia and our own Rocky Mountain states, are among the points from which the principal parts of the preparation are obtained.

In the laboratories of the Cooper Medicine Co., Inc., in Dayton, O., and Walkerville, Ont., under the efficient direction of a celebrated chemist, these medicinal roots, herbs and barks are assembled in the rough and painstakingly developed so as to obtain that high standard of efficiency shown by the uniform preparation, Tanlac.

In sterilised bottles, made expressly for the purpose, Tanlac is placed, labeled and cartoned; the preparation is inspected again and then crated, ready for shipment to points over the world where the demand requires.

Hundreds called throughout the day yesterday at D. E. Campbell's Drug Store, to find out just how the famous medicine Tanlac was sold, how it was prepared, and what the preparation actually looked like.

In commenting upon the wonderful amount of interest shown, the Tanlac representative said:

"The success of the opening day of the introductory sale of Tanlac has by far exceeded my expectations. I have been agreeably surprised by the knowledge the public seems to have of the preparation. While many came merely to see what the medicine actually looked like, equally as many came prepared to obtain the preparation. These people simply asked for Tanlac, and the facility with which the medicine was distributed throughout the day proved somewhat of a revelation to the management of our local agency.

"I am, indeed, gratified," he continued, "to see such marked enthusiasm and I now feel justified in predicting that Tanlac will prove just as successful in Victoria as it has in the larger cities of the East, West and Pacific Coast. I do not believe that I am over-estimating the success of the medicine when I state that I am confident that from one to two thousand people will call and obtain Tanlac during the next ten days."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell. (Advt.)

MANY PROMINENT MEN COME OUT FOR TANLAC

FORMER MAYOR OF BIRMINGHAM RECOMMENDS IT

Declares He Now Weighs More Than He Ever Did Before in His Life—Recovery Talk of Town.

One of the latest additions to the large and rapidly growing list of prominent men who have publicly indorsed Tanlac for the good it has done them is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former mayor Birmingham. Mr. Evans is one of the best known men in public life in Alabama today, being at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers, the Birmingham Age-Herald. He was also examiner of public accounts in Alabama. In telling of the benefits he had derived from Tanlac, Mr. Evans said:

"For years I suffered with gastritis and indigestion in the worst form. I was habitually constipated and had pains in my shoulders and headache continually. My appetite left me almost entirely and everything I would eat hurt me. Finally I got to having awful attacks of acute indigestion, palpitation of the heart and smothering spells. For a long time I would have one or more of these spells every night and I would wake out of my restless sleep gasping for breath.

"I bought a bottle of Tanlac, and to my surprise and gratification, I began to feel relief after the first few doses. I kept taking the medicine and now weigh more than ever before, and my recovery is simply the talk of Birmingham."

REV. A. H. SYKES IS MUCH GRATIFIED

Tells of the Remarkable Change in His Wife's Condition—Feels It His Duty to Let Public Know Facts.

The Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., prominent not only as a minister of the gospel but popular as a man and citizen who has been true to his friends and every trust ever reposed in him, said recently:

"For the last ten months Mrs. Sykes has been in very delicate health, suffering from bad stomach and kidney troubles, which gradually developed into a general nervous breakdown. At times her condition became alarming and I frequently sought medical advice, but nothing we could do for her seemed to bring relief.

"In fact, she suffered so long and so much that I feel it my duty to let everyone know what this medicine has done for her. For several months her condition was such that she had to remain in bed, and as a last resort I decided to let her try Tanlac.

"I am a conservative man and have always been skeptical regarding the use of proprietary medicines, but this case has certainly proven an exception. I am now firmly convinced that Tanlac is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything to give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had taken only two-thirds of a bottle of this medicine when we began to notice a marked improvement in her condition. In less than a week from the time she began taking it she was able to sit up, and is today able to help with the household duties. Before she began taking Tanlac she had fearful pains in her side and suffered constantly from sour stomach and indigestion and was intensely nervous. These distressing symptoms, I am thankful to say, have entirely disappeared, her appetite has returned and she seems to relish everything she eats. She sleeps better and is gaining strength and flesh rapidly. I think it only a question of a short time until her health is fully restored.

"Tanlac has certainly proven a remarkable remedy in her case, and will do all you claim for it. I cheerfully recommend it to my friends.'

JUDGE G. W. KYSER MAKES INTERESTING STATEMENT

Judge G. W. Kyser, 1204 West Ninth Street, Austin, Tex., in a recent interview, made the following statement:

"Tanlac is rapidly making me over into a new man, and I will always speak a good word for it when I have the opportunity."

Judge Kyser served in the Civil War with the 32nd Texas Cavalry under Col. Woods, and occupied the bench in Caldwell County for twenty years, and resigned this office to accept the appointment as commissioner of pensions under Gov. Colquitt. After eighteen months in this high office he was compelled, on account of failing health, to retire from active life. He is not only one of Austin's most highly respected citizens, but is prominently known throughout the State.

"I have suffered from constipation for years," continued Judge Kyser. "I had rheumatic pains all over my body, was restless, and couldn't sleep at all well. I had no energy and suffered frequently from headaches—and to be frank about it, I was just about played out.

"But I'm feeling like a different man now, thanks to Tanlac. In fact, I'm feeling fine now and nothing has helped me but Tanlac. I am recommending it to my friends as the best medicine I have ever found to build up a weak, run-down system and to restore lost health and vigor."

Mayors, Judges, State and County Officials, Bankers, Lawyers, Doctors, Editors And Ministers Endorse It.

It is seldom, indeed, that men of prominence, especially men holding high public office, willing express their indebtedness publicly to a proprietary medicine. Many prominent men, however, including Supreme Court judges, mayors of our leading cities, prominent State and county officials, bankers, lawyers, doctors, editors, leading educators, Government officials and even ministers of the gospel, have deemed it their duty to come forward and tell the people what Tanlac has done for them.

These well-known men of affairs have recognized in this medicine a new discovery and a scientific triumph in the medical world. It is a well-known fact that these splendid endorsements have been given Tanlac time and time again, and they will continue to be given just as often as new tests of its powers are made, and it also explains why numbers of the big drug firms of the country are ordering it exclusively in carload lots.

Appearing below are a few endorsements from the large numbers that are continually being given to the public.

HIGH SHERIFFS NOW CONVINCED

From Many Widely Separated States Comes Unstinted Praise and Recommendation for Tanlac.

From four of the best-known sheriffs in the South, in widely separated States, have come enthusiastic endorsements as to the merits of Tanlac.

"Tanlac has certainly helped me, and I recommend it for the good it has done in my case," said Hon. C. W. Mangum, ex-sheriff of Fulton County, Georgia, who resides in Atlanta, and who has been one of the most popular officials in the State, having served three terms as sheriff.

"Tanlac seemed to be just what I needed to put my system in shape, and it has toned me right up. Naturally, I would recommend it to my friends, and I know of fifteen or twenty families that are taking it now on my say-so."

Arkansas Official Testifies

Hon. Charles L. Lewis, ex-sheriff of Crittenden County, a merchant and a large plantation owner of Marion, Ark., said: "I am convinced from the benefits that my wife and myself and many of our friends have received from Tanlac that it is without an equal."

Ex-Sheriff Anderson's Statement

"Money couldn't buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it to others for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, ex-sheriff of Harris County, Texas, who was re-elected to this high office seven times and served the people of his county for fifteen years as sheriff. Mr. Anderson was chief of police of the city of Houston, where he resided for several years, and there is not a better known man in Harris County.

Texas Sheriff's Endorsement

"I needed a general, all-around building-up for the last seven months, and Tanlac has done that very thing for me," said Hon. S. A. Kelly, who resides at Odessa, Texas, and who is one of the most popular officials in that section of the State.

"I have taken only two bottles, but I feel like a different man already. My appetite is fine, and what I eat gives me nourishment and strength. The rheumatism is much better, and my liver is in good condition. I am relieved of the headaches, and feel more active and energetic than I have in months."

PRESIDENT COTTON OIL MILL PRAISES IT

Mr. C. C. Cooper, president of the Georgia Home Cotton Oil Company, of Lawrenceville, Ga., and one of the big business men of Atlanta, said:

"I suffered for seven or eight years. . . . Not until I began taking Tanlac have I been able to notice the slightest improvement in my condition. I am greatly improved and Tanlac is unquestionably the best thing of the kind I ever tried."

Among the prominent manufacturers and business men who have endorsed Tanlac are John F. Carroll, cotton mill superintendent and leading citizen of Chattahoochee and Atlanta; N. M. Yancey, manager of contract department, Atlanta Telephone and Telegraph Company.

PRESIDENT PROTESTANT HOME FOR GIRLS TALKS

Dr. W. H. Brown, 4822 Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tenn., founder and president of the Tennessee Protestant Home for Girls, and a man whose charitable work has won for him the friendship and admiration of thousands, said:

"My friends have all noticed the great improvement in me since I took Tanlac, and I am boosting it every chance I get. From my own personal experience with the medicine and from what I have observed where others have been using it, I am convinced that it is the best medicine of the kind in the world."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell

BANKERS OF THE SOUTH PRAISE IT TO THE PUBLIC

Officials of Two Well-Known Financial Institutions on Same Day Testify to Its Merits.

Two of the best-known bankers in the Southern States recently, on the same day, in personal letters, told of their remarkable experience with the use of Tanlac. Their letters follow exactly as written.

The first letter quoted comes through Eli W. Goode, druggist and local agent for Tanlac at Hawkinsville, Ga., containing the statement of E. J. Henry, president of the Hawkinsville Bank and Trust Company, which is one of the best-known financial institutions in that part of the State. His letter follows, just as it was written:

"Hawkinsville, Ga., March 5, 1917.

"Mr. G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:

"Dear Sir:—Mr. E. J. Henry, president of the Hawkinsville Bank and Trust Company, came into my store a few days ago and said: 'Eli, sell me another bottle of Tanlac.'

"I said, 'Mr. Henry, what do you really think of Tanlac ' His reply was so commendable to the virtues of the medicine that I asked him if he would give me a signed statement about it. He said: 'Yes, of course, I will,' and this is his statement:

" 'Last Spring I was all wrong some way or other and couldn't get right. I came to you and bought a bottle of Tanlac and began to improve. Two more bottles put me all right and I felt perfectly well. I few weeks ago I had the grippe and was beginning to get down and out again, and about a week ago I bought another bottle and have taken it and am perfectly well again.

" 'I unhesitatingly recommend Tanlac to anyone who is sick and worn out, as I believe that if anybody will take Tanlac when they first begin to feel badly it will prevent and keep off sickness. It certainly is a great remedy.

(Signed) " 'E. J. HENRY, President,

" 'Hawkinsville Bank and Trust Co.' "

The other letter referred to comes from the cashier of the Hornbeck branch of the West Louisiana Bank at Hornbeck, La., and is as follows:

"Hornbeck, La., March 5, 1917.

"Mr. G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:

"Dear Sir:—I wish to say that I have taken five (5) bottles of Tanlac and have gained fifteen (15) pounds in three weeks. I think it is a great medicine.

(Signed) "W. C. McELVEEN, Cashier, "Bank of Hornbeck, Hornbeck, La."

DR. J. T. EDWARDS PRESCRIBES TANLAC

Says Has Never in His Thirty Years Active Practice of Medicine Seen Anything to Equal It.

Dr. J. T. Edwards, of Fayatteville, Ga., one of the best-known members of the medical profession in the State of Georgia, makes a statement that will undoubtedly make a profound impression throughout the country.

"In my thirty years of active practice as a licensed physician in the State of Georgia," says Dr. Edwards, "I have never seen anything to equal Tanlac as a medicine to produce results. I hear people on all sides telling of the benefits they have derived from its use.

"Tanlac is simply the talk of the town. I have no hesitancy in recommending the medicine, and as a matter of fact I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day.

"Only a few days ago a well-known woman of Fayetteville came to me and told me about the remarkable relief her daughter had gained from the use of this medicine. She said her daughter had been confined to her bed for three years with what had been pronounced pellagra and that after using Tanlac for a short time she was able to be about and was on the road to recovery.

"But this is only one instance. People in all walks of life in and around our little city are giving similar indorsements to the medicine. Seldom a day passes that someone does not come to me and say something about the good results they are getting from the use of Tanlac."

PASTOR OF WESLEY MEMORIAL TESTIFIES

The Rev. W. C. Norton, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church, 523 Estell Street, Jacksonville, Fla., which large charge he has held for many years, is not only a leader in his church, but is exceedingly popular and widely recognized as a leading citizen and a man of thought and action. The Rev. Mr. Norton said:

"I suffered from chronic indigestion for eight or ten years. . . . The benefits I derived from this medicine are nothing short of wonderful, for I really feel as well now as I ever felt in my life. In short, Tanlac has simply restored my health and I feel it my duty to recommend it."

Among many other well-known ministers of the gospel who have indorsed Tanlac are the Rev. John M. Simms, Baptist minister, and the Rev. A. L. Tull, Methodist, both of Atlanta; the Rev. J. A. Wells, pastor of Oak Ridge Methodist Church, Oak Ridge, Miss.; the Rev. A. J. Vallery, Memphis, Tenn., and many others.—(Adv.)

CHANGES ARE MADE IN COAST SERVICE

Alice on Night Run to Vancouver—Mary on Northern Run—Island Princess to be Overhauled.

Changes in the C. P. R. coastal service have been decided upon. The Princess Alice, which lately returned from Juneau with the Sophia victims, will be operated between here and Vancouver on the night run, while the Princess Mary will start for Northern ports tonight, commencing her schedule on the run that the Sophia was operating on when she went down.

The Princess May is now having a propeller shaft installed at Yarrows. She will not be ready probably for some time, and when she is fit for service again may take up the Northern run in place of the Mary.

Within a few days the Island Princess will be taken off her run for a general overhauling and tuning up. She will be off for a couple of weeks, and in the meantime the steamer Otter will take up her run.

The Princess Ena is now on her way down the West Coast and will be in this port within a few days. Officials of the C.P.R. state that she will not make any trans-Pacific run during the Winter, and just where she will go next is not yet known.

The stormy weather did not interfere with the Gulf service boats, no sailings being cancelled.

DIVERS IN GREAT DANGER AT WRECK

Strong Current, Movement of Ship and Chance of Hull Shifting With Men Inside Make Work Hazardous.

Operating at a depth of about 80 feet, the two divers, Thomas Veitch and John Donaldson, of the salvage vessel Tees, endeavored to salve valuables and bodies from the Sophia wreck, all the while being in great danger from the swift currents, the inability to see far under water, the movement of the wreck near the surface and the likelihood of the hull shifting suddenly.

Watched Each Other

In order to protect the men under water they travelled together, Mr. Donaldson following Mr. Veitch wherever he went and transmitting his signals to the surface. In this way nothing could befall one diver without the other one being aware of it.

Although only able to work for a short time owing to rough weather, the divers managed to recover $132,000 in bullion and some mail. Some of those on the Tees knew the exact position of the Wells Fargo safe in which the bullion was stored, and this was loaded on the Tees. The launch Santa Rita was used to assist the divers in their work.

Bumped Into Corpse

The one body that was found on the wreck was bumped into by Donaldson during his submarine trip. The body of a horse was found near the safe containing the gold.

On one occasion the salvage boat went to the scene of the wreck in the morning with the sea calm. The divers went down to work, when suddenly a squall arose, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the men were got up and the boat got to shelter.

It was learnt that there was still $5,000 left in the purser's cabin, but the divers absolutely refused to go down and get it, as they had taken their lives in their hands before and would not do it again.

O'HARA'S WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN TO POLICE

The only further word received by the Provincial police yesterday regarding the bringing out of the victims of the Renfrew wreck on the West Coast last Sunday was a wire from the Lummi Bay Packing Co., owners of the lost vessel. It stated that the bodies were being packed for shipment and would be brought out in the fishing tender Bonilla as soon as possible. The weather is still very stormy off Nitinat and the Bonilla will be unable to get over the bar at the mouth of the river until the waters are comparatively smooth.

No word has yet been received from Constable O'Hara, who went to Clo-oose to take charge of the bodies and bring them to Victoria. He was unable to land in a small boat at Clo-oose owing to bad weather and was forced to go on to Banfield. He would have to walk back along a telegraph trail, a distance of twenty-five miles. His orders were to telegraph conditions as soon as he arrived, and as no word has been received, it is probable that he has not negotiated the rough trail, which is said to be well-nigh impassable at this time of the year.

WILL OPERATE SHIPS BEING BUILT HERE

Offices are to be established here by Thorndyke-Trenholme Co., Inc., who have been appointed operating agents for all vessels under construction in British Columbia for the French Government, numbering almost fifty.

As soon as the twenty vessels now under construction at the Foundation yards are completed they will be taken to Seattle, the operating headquarters of Thorndyke-Trenholme Co., where they will be loaded and dispatched to sea, taking flour and foodstuffs direct to France.

The company now has ninety-two French wooden vessels under their control, all having been, or are being, built on the Pacific Coast.

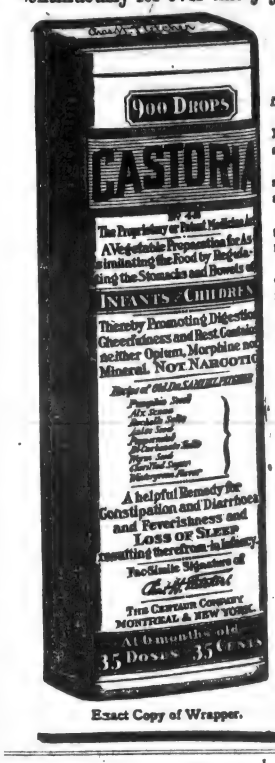

Polish Troops Enter Silesia

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14.—Polish troops, according to a dispatch from Berlin, have entered upper Silesia, Prussia.

Counterfeits.

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trade-mark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Conger Bros. of St. Paul, Minn., say: "Fletcher's Castoria is certainly full of merit and worthy of recommendation."

C. G. A. Loder, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "For 20 years we have sold Fletcher's Castoria and are pleased to state that it has given universal satisfaction."

The Scholtz Drug Co., of Denver, Colo., says: "Fletcher's Castoria has surely become a household word. Seemingly every family where there are children uses it."

Hoagland & Mansfield, of Boston, Mass., say: "We have nothing but good to say about your Castoria and we do not hesitate to give it our unqualified endorsement."

Riker's Drug Stores, of New York City, say: "Fletcher's Castoria is one of the oldest and most popular preparations in our stores. We have nothing but good to say about it."

Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Of the thousands of patent medicines for which we have demand there are a very few of them that we can conscientiously recommend and your Castoria is included in this few."

D. R. Dyche & Co., of Chicago, Ills., say: "The increasing demand for your Castoria shows that a discriminating public is not slow to seek out a remedy of merit and once convinced that it does all and even more than claimed they do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends."

The Owl Drug Co., of San Francisco, Cal., says: "We have always been a believer in the 'original man protection' and have been particular never to sell anything but the genuine and original Castoria (Fletcher's). We have many calls every day for this article from people who say they would not be without it in their homes."

SHIP CONSTRUCTION IN UNITED STATES

Government to Continue Shipbuilding, But Revision of Programme Will be Made for Economy Operation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Shipbuilding in this country is to be continued steadily, but the programme of the Shipping Board, based on war needs, will be revised and designs for ships will be changed with reference to economical cost of operation, Chairman Hurley said today, outlining the board's peace time plans.

"The continued need for building American-owned tonnage is obvious," said Mr. Hurley. "Not only must we continue to supply our armies overseas and prepare to bring them home at the earliest moment compatible with safety, but Europe must be fed and supplied with the necessary materials to permit the reconstruction of devastated areas in order that both our friends and our enemies may become self-supporting and the burden of feeding the world taken from our shoulders.

"There are not enough ships in the world to carry on this work and to provide immediate transport for ordinary commerce. For that reason only a limited portion of the shipping which can be constructed by us in 1919 will be available for use in the ordinary commercial channels.

"For two months the Shipping Board has been making complete survey of its construction programme and contracts. It is planned that from now on ships will be built with special reference to suitability for special service and with particular reference to the economical cost of operation, including the motive power, cargo space and speed."

PULLED OUT TODAY

The Princess May will be pulled out on the slip at Yarrows today to have a new propeller shaft installed. When this work is completed the Adelaide will go on to have repaired the damage done when she ran on Georgina Point on October 13. She will be ready for service about the end of the year.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of 21 years, renewals for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, rescinded by Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V., assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

MARKET FOLLOWS UNCERTAIN COURSE

Firmness of Prices at Opening Gives Way to Depression on Rumors as to Cancellation of War Contracts.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The stock market today gave further expression to the many conflicting factors which have engaged the earnest attention of financial and industrial interests since the signing of the armistice. Prices were firm to strong at the beginning, rails, shippings, equipments and oils, together with such specialties as motors and tobaccos, holding their gains of 1 to 3 points throughout the forenoon.

Later the entire list fell back, the reversal coinciding with reports from Washington to the effect that the war industries board has been empowered to cancel war contracts in excess of a comparatively nominal amount.

The reaction was at its height in the last hour, when oils and industrials not only forfeited all gains, but gave way to net losses of 1 to 4 points.

United States Steel gave promise at the outset, regaining a substantial part of its recent loss, advancing 1¼ points, but relinquished all its advantage, closing at a slight fractional loss.

Sales amounted to 615,000 shares.

Liberty bonds eased slightly. Domestic railway and industrial issues yielded from 1 to 1⅛ per cent and internationals were irregular.

Total sales $11,750,000. Old U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

Waves Over Bridge

The Prince Rupert, Capt. Duncan Mackenzie, left for the North yesterday morning. Crossing Queen Charlotte Sound on her way South Monday, while the world had gone wild with joy, the waves also seemed to be feeling frisky and washed over the bridge of the G. T. P. flyer. A rough trip was experienced coming back from Seattle yesterday morning and the storm had not lessened noticeably when the boat pulled out for Prince Rupert. She has never been stopped by rough weather yet.

Whale Oil on Deck

There are still many barrels of whale oil lying on the G. T. P. dock, having been brought down by the tender Gray and the Princess Maquinna. A carload or so of oil is sent off to the Mainland almost every week on the ferry, to be shipped to the East for Lever Bros. and other concerns.

Visiting Here

Mr. David Donaldson, who was formerly with the G. T. P. in Prince Rupert and who is now American Vice-Consul, is in this city visiting his home.

The Word They Use

It is only in newspapers that the words "miscellaneous cargo" are used. Among the men of the shipping offices they are replaced by one word that is short and slangy. "What did the ——— take out last night?" Oh, just "plunder."

A Fine Lookout

Mr. Miles, of the Victoria Tug Co., whose offices are situated in the Belmont Building, has a quick way of finding out whether his tugs are nearing port. He goes up to the top of the building and takes a look around. A tug can be seen from there from the time she reaches Oak Bay until she gets into the Inner Harbor, with the exception of a spot where Beacon Hill censors the view.

Behind Schedule

Bringing 191 passengers and 1,600 tons of general freight to this port, the N. Y. K. Liner Katora Maru will reach Victoria about the 21st of this month. She left Yokohama three days behind schedule.

No Word from Niagara

The latest word received concerning the movements of the Canadian-Australasian Liner Niagara states that she will sail again for the Antipodes on the 4th of December. She should be here a few days before this date. Owing to naval regulations, which prevent wireless communication with these boats, it is not known here when the vessel left or what she has on board. It is expected that the ban will be lifted within the near future now that hostilities have ended.

Captain in San Francisco

Capt. W. E. Kelly, manager of the R. P. Rithet Stevedoring Co. at the Outer Docks here, went to San Francisco recently for a holiday. He came originally from Frisco, where he was popularly known as "Schoolmarm Kelly." He was for many years a captain in the service of the Matson Navigation Company and commanded the barquentine R. P. Rithet when that boat carried about a dozen passengers each trip between Frisco and Honolulu. The fact that the vessel usually carried a number of school teachers gave Capt. Kelly his nickname. The captain is back among his old friends on the Frisco waterfront celebrating the signing of an armistice.

Slow Deliveries

Slow lumber deliveries are keeping back the work on the schooners being constructed in the Cholberg shipyard. The first schooner is in frame with the stern post in position and work has commenced on the framing for the second hull.

NO GUN PLATFORMS ON REST OF SHIPS

Remaining I. M. B. Steamers Being Outfitted at Assembly Plant Will Not Mount Guns, Submarine Menace Over.

In accordance with orders issued to the local officials of the Imperial Munitions Board, no more gun platforms will be erected on the I.M.B. boats now being outfitted at Ogden Point Assembly Plant. The defence guns are no longer considered necessary. In the past guns had been placed aboard the vessels when they reached Jamaica on their way to the Old Country.

The trial trip of the War Casca was held from the Assembly Plant last Tuesday, and the new boat was found entirely satisfactory.

The War Sumas, which was outfitted at Yarrows, Esquimalt, held her trials yesterday in very heavy weather. She also went through the trials with satisfaction to all on board and behaved very well in the storm.

No attempt was made to lower the Canadian equipping record, which is held by the Assembly Plant, in the fitting out of the Casca, as many of the men were laid off with the influenza.

Asked when the Assembly Plant would complete its work on the I.M.B. steamers, Mr. J. H. Alexander, superintending engineer at Ogden Point, said: "We are handicapped by the boilers. It depends on them."

The Sumas was unable to tie up at the Assembly Plant owing to the storm, and returned to Esquimalt. Today she will be taken to Ogden Point and handed over to the I. M. B. On the way there the ship will go through anchor tests, which were not made yesterday. The storm made the test a thorough one, those on board being enabled to understand how she would act when at sea.

This is the second boat fitted out by Yarrows for the Munitions Board, the first being the War Massett.

TO BUILD SURVEY BOATS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Construction of two vessels for the Coast and Geodetic Survey for use in sounding hitherto uncharted waters in Alaska and on the south Pacific coast will be begun at once by the Shipping Board. Secretary Redfield announced today that the vessels will be built on the Great Lakes, will be of steel and will cost $400,000 each. Lack of proper information for mariners regarding Alaskan waters, Secretary Redfield said, has resulted in many wrecks and great loss of life and property during the last few years.

SCHWAB IS GUEST OF HONOR AT BIG DINNER

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Mr. Charles M. Schwab, general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, was guest of honor here tonight at the first of a series of dinners planned in honor of "Nation Builders" by the Society of Arts and Sciences.

More than 1,000 prominent men and women were present to pay their respects to Mr. Schwab, who was acclaimed "the master mind of America's shipping industry." The Emergency Fleet Corporation, Mr. Schwab declared, will go through with its programme calling for 13,000,000 tons of shipping, though the war is ended.

During October, he said, 416,000 tons of shipping were placed in operation, bringing the total tonnage built by the corporation above the 3,000,000 mark. The present month, he said, it is hoped to place 500,000 more tons in commission.

Mr. Schwab paid high tribute to the shipworkers, whose loyalty, he declared, had made possible the remarkable achievements of the corporation.

BURNT TO WATER'S EDGE AND SANK AT THE DOCK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—The Pacific Mail Company's steamer Pennsylvania sank at her dock at Iquique, Chile, November 13, after fire had burned her to the water's edge, according to advices received at the company's office here today. No lives were reported lost.

The Pennsylvania, a vessel of 3,000 tons deadweight and valued at $600,000, was under charter to the United States Shipping Board. She left here October 30 to take a cargo of nitrate from Iquique to Honolulu. Built in 1872, the Pennsylvania was originally on the Red Star Line between Philadelphia and Amsterdam.

SEATTLE, Nov. 14.—The Pennsylvania was once owned by the Alaska SS. Company, which operated her in Alaska waters. She was brought from the east coast in 1905 by Captain John F. Blain, Seattle, Northwest district officer of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

PROCEEDS TO SEA

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 14.—Promptly at 12 o'clock the big 8,800-ton steel freighter War Charger, which has been at the Coughlan shipyards having some additional work done to her to the order of the Imperial Munitions Board, left her fitting-out berth at the False Creek yard and proceeded through the bridges to sea. The big craft was in charge of Captain Moody, of the local pilot office, who has had the distinction of taking many of the British Columbia-built vessels on their trial trips. Captain Walker commands the steamer.

THIS CONCERT PARTY AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Lieut. Ritchie, Who Went Overseas as a Non-Commissioned Officer in Bantams, Describes Rare Treat.

Although the terrifying side of war is probably permanently dispensed with through the signing of the armistice with the enemy, there is reason to believe that the demobilization of troops will not come about for some little time, and the social activities which have kept the boys in good humor through more than four years of war may still have to be continued for some time to keep them entertained in camp during the period prior to dispersion.

The following description by Lieut. W. Gordon Ritchie, a former Victorian who went overseas with the B.C. Bantams as Company Sergeant-Major, later being drafted to his present unit, gives a very good idea of the sort of enjoyment which the boys get from the entertainment which is devised for their pastime at the camp theatres. Lieut. Ritchie, incidentally, is now in England, having just finished the officer's training course and taken a commission. He was expecting to return to France within a few days when he wrote the appended:

Concert Party

"Concert parade tonight, fellows, at 6 o'clock. Company commander wants all you guys to come. He's treating the whole company. Hear its a good show, too!"

Thus spake the sergeant, and his words were received with a much better grace than his usual remarks were. A concert party, just after coming out of the line, is a treat indeed, and the C.C.'s invitation to attend one of the best shows in France at his personal expense would be accepted pretty generally throughout the company.

Promptly at six that evening the fortunate "A" company moved off, in charge of the sergeant-major, the officers following at a dignified distance. On arrival at the big barn-like structure that passed for a theatre, after a moment or two of confusion the company were piloted by an "usher" to the seats allotted "A."

Lots of noisy chaff accompanied the finding of the seats, and pals were busy in seeking pals, so as to sit together during the show. As soon as seats were found, pipes and fags were lighted, and before long a blue haze hung over the audience, mounting up to the low peak of the roof, thick enough to almost justify the wearing of gas masks. Through this haze the dim light of oil lamps showed still dim, and one wondered at the ability of any artist to breathe that air and still render a good song.

The orchestra is playing popular tunes, and as each familiar air is started or the chorus of a song is reached, voices rise all over the hall, taking up the words, and feet commence to stamp in time to the music.

As the orchestra ceases to play, cries of "good old band" are raised, this being the soldiers' sign of appreciation of good music. A silence full of expectancy falls as the footlights come on, and again the orchestra starts to play. After a bar or two, up goes the curtain and the opening chorus is away to a good start.

There is always an opening chorus, the artists generally making a statement something about their endeavors to please the boys for the night, etc. At any rate, it always goes with a good swing, and always receives a good share of applause.

From now on things go with a rush, each number succeeding another without any tiresome "waits." Comic song follows duet, duet follows a sleight of hand turn, and it is hard to tell from the volume of applause which is most appreciated, a song full of sentiment, telling of honor, etc., or the offering of the darky who sings a song which makes the audience roar with laughter. Quips and jest and anecdote follow, and many local hits are made, mostly at the expense of the officers of the company, much to the delight of the boys.

The curtain falls on the final number, and "the King" is played. Before leaving, however, the C.C. calls for three cheers for the concert party, and they are given with a will, indeed.

We wander home in little groups, discussing the concert as a whole, singing little snatches of the catchy choruses, and laughing again as some of the jokes are retold.

All thought of the line and our discomforts are driven from our minds, and every concert party attended makes us more cheerful, better fighting men.

While the men composing the party are "bomb-proofers," they have all done their "bit" in the line, too, and who will say that they are not still doing as much towards winning the war in their own way as the rest of us?

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and accordingly requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double strength). Take this home and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmint used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

BEGIN TO TALK NOW OF CIVIC ELECTION

Gossip About Mayoralty and Aldermanic Possibilities Likely to Start in Earnest Soon—How Situation Looks

With the approach of the civic elections, talk of prospective candidates for the mayoralty and aldermanic contests is being revived. The discussion has not yet reached the epidemic stage, however, and the reports on which any election indications can be fastened are as yet somewhat vague.

Nomination day is on Monday, January 13, and election day is on the Thursday following. With these eventful days less than two months away, interest in the election possibilities may be expected to grow each successive week.

Mayor Todd is practically certain to run for a third term. It is improbable, however, that he will be without opposition. Alderman Robert J. Porter, who was defeated by Mayor Todd by a narrow margin in 1916, and who headed the aldermanic polls last year, will probably enter the field, and there are at least three other members of the present Council mentioned as prospective nominees. The name of Alderman W. J. Sargent is repeatedly referred to by City Hall election depesters as a likely competitor, and Alderman Alex. Peden has also been suggested as Victoria's next Mayor. Alderman George Sangster, who was returned to the council last January after several years' retirement from public life, is yet another possibility.

Probably Three-Cornered Fight

It is next to certain, however, that no matter how lofty the aspirations of the candidates are, the mayoralty race will not be a five-ring affair, as suggested by the aforementioned names.

There is every probability that an outsider may enter the contest, but so far as the members of the present council go, it is unlikely that more than three, if that many, will stack their fortunes against each other. The popular opinion is that the campaign will be a three-cornered one.

Alderman Sargent has been in the council several years and during the past year has been at the head of the Legislative and the Increased Production Committees. Alderman Peden's interest has been mainly centred in the Health Board, of which he has been the chairman for the past two years.

It is generally felt that if Alderman Porter entered the field Alderman Sangster would not oppose him, and vice versa. Alderman Sangster returned to Victoria from the prairies in 1916 to manage Alderman Porter's mayoralty campaign, which came within an ace of being successful. Last January the two ran together, Alderman Porter being at the top of the list with Alderman Sangster not far behind.

There has been a good deal of talk lately of running a large number of outside men for places in the 1919 Council, and the general indications are that the electors will have a wide choice next January. It is a pretty safe bet that all members of the present council will be in the thick of the contest when it opens.

POSTPONEMENT OF THANKSGIVING URGED

Provincial Health Authorities Suggest National Ceremony Be Delayed for Two Weeks Owing to Influenza.

The postponement for two weeks of the National Thanksgiving proposed by the Federal authorities to be celebrated throughout Canada on Sunday next was requested in a telegram which was sent to Ottawa yesterday by the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary and head of the Provincial Board of Health.

The message was in reply to one received from Hon. Martin Burrell, Secretary of State, raising the question of the advisability or otherwise, in view of the prevailing Spanish influenza epidemic, of postponing the Dominion-wide Thanksgiving. Hon. Mr. Burrell set forth that the health authorities of the Province of Alberta have expressed the opinion that so far as that Province is concerned any form of public assembly at the present time would be fraught with grave danger.

Following consideration of Hon. Mr. Burrell's telegram by the Provincial health authorities, the following reply was sent to Ottawa:

"Owing to influenza, epidemic, our Provincial Board of Health deems it in the interests of the public health to postpone National Thanksgiving for two weeks."

"NO STRIKE" ORDER IS NOW CANCELLED

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—The following statement was handed out this morning by the Minister of Labor:

"On the recommendation of the Minister of Labor, the Government yesterday revoked the 'no strike' order-in-council issued on October 11, 1918.

"The immediate necessity of the original order was caused by a threatened strike, staged for Thanksgiving Day by some 5,000 labor men.

"The order was not regarded by the Government as placing any disability upon the great majority of labor organizations who had accepted the Government's war labor policy, as announced by order-in-council in July last, and were submitting all their grievances to the tribunals designated, which were being operated with perfect success.

"The 'no-strike' order was issued only for the purpose of maintaining industrial peace during the continuances of the war, and is cancelled because it has served its purpose and is no longer necessary."
